Broadwell Woman, Daughter 10,

Cliff Benner Sees Auto-Truck Crash Killing Wife, Girl

Logan county's eighth and ninth traffic deaths of the year were recorded Sunday night when Mrs. Dorothy J. Benner, 43, Broadwell, and her 10-year-old daughter, Kay Frances, died from injuries suffered in a car-truck crash at Broadwell on route 66.

Last year at this time three traffic deaths had been recorded in the county.

Mrs. Benner apparently drove her car into the path of a truck driven by Fredrick O. Seablom, 22, Schiller Park.

She was headed west across the highway and the truck was headed south. Mrs. Benner's husband, Clifford Benner, mayor of Broadwell, was standing in a gasoline station driveway nearby and saw the accident.

He ran to the scene and found his wife lying on the pavement. He didn't know his car was involved until he got to the scene. She died at Lincoln Memorial hospital at 9:35 p.m., a few minutes more than an hour after the accident.

SKULL FRACTURED

The girl was dead on arrival at the hospital. Mrs. Benner suffered a skull fracture. The girl was trapped in the car and apparently died of internal injuries. A dog that was riding in the car also was killed. The truck driver was not injured.

Impact of the crash knocked the car about 100 feet and the truck jack-knifed and went off the road. The trailer overturned.

State Policemen Robert Werner and Dwight Pittman and Coroner John Barry investigated the accident. Dammernan & Fricke ambulances were called to the scene.

DOUBLE FUNERAL SET

Double services will be at 2 p.m., Wednesday from Immanuel Lutheran church of Lincoln with the Rev. Ehme Osterbur officiating. Interment will be in Union cemetery. Friends may call after 3 p.m., Tuesday at Holland and Barry Funeral Home.

Mrs. Benner, the former Dorothy Jones of Lincoln, was born in this city Aug. 20, 1913, the daughter of Roscoe and Hulda Wilkie Jones. She was married to Clifford Benner at St. Charles, Mo., Aug. 23, 1940.

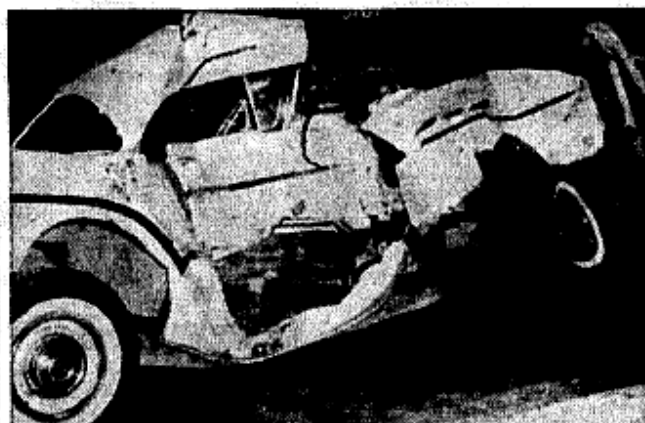

Besides her mother and her husband she leaves a son, James of Broadwell, a brother, Ross Jones of Lincoln; and three sisters, Mrs. Orville Hardin of Lincoln and Mrs. Wayne Voyles and Mrs. Robert Guy of Beason. Her father was killed several years ago in a traffic accident in Lincoln.

Kay Frances Benner was born in Lincoln Sept. 6, 1946. Besides her father and brother, James, she leaves her grandfather, Cass Benner of Broadwell, and her grandmother, Mrs. Hulda Jones of Lincoln.

Mrs. Benner was a member of Immanuel Lutheran church.

Toastmasters Warble; Install

April Fool surprises passed back and forth at Toastmasters meeting Monday night at Lincoln Memorial Hospital dining room.

Toastmaster Lester Litwiler demanded that instead of table topic speeches, each member would be required to sing a song. Then he called on Dr. Earl Swan, who responded with a song. Although it was intended for an April Fool joke only on Dr. Swan, several others sang songs instead of speaking.

Merle Dixon sang "You're Nothing but a Hound Dog," Ray Stucker sang, "Down by the Old Mill Stream," and Frank Musselhorn sang, "Du, Du, Liegst mir in Herten".

The meeting was opened by retiring president, Larry Kinsey, who was given his past-president's pin by Emil Stahlhut. Installation was given by Dr. Swan. Toastmaster Ronald Budd introduced speakers Merle Dixon, who spoke on, "Let's have a little fun"; Charles Heumann, who presented his "icebreaker" speech; and William Gossett. Gossett, who discussed "Basic Courtesies," was voted speaker of the evening.

General evaluator William McCormick appointed Safford Peacock, Jesse Johns, and Ray Stucker as critics. The grammarian was Frank Mast and timer was Eu Kolowski.

Emil Stahlhut installed the newly elected officers. They are President Harry Bucher; educational vice president Jesse Johns; administrative vice president Orville Werth; secretary Charles Wilson; treasurer Safford Peacock and Sergeant-at-arms Frank Mast.

Fred H. Buse Dies Tuesday in A. L. Hospital

Fred H. Buse of Lincoln rural route one died at 6:15 a.m., Tuesday in Abraham Lincoln Memorial hospital. He was an employee of Burtonview Grain Elevator.

Meeting Reminder

Open Electricity School for 4-H

Four H members from Logan county were introduced to Reddy Kilowatt Thursday evening at the first of a series of four advanced electricity schools conducted at the Farm Bureau building.

Harry Miller, of Central Illinois Electric and Gas Co., instructor, gave an explanation of project requirements, a review of last year's project work, instructions on how to build a test panel and outlined progress in use of labor saving equipment.

Charts showed that the average work week before the use of electricity was 78 hours per week, weekly pay was $4 and the average life span was 35½ years. "We have now gone to the sun or atomic age from this first muscle age," the 4-H students were told. The meeting was concluded with an animated film on the discovery of electricity.

Four-H members enrolled in the electricity course are: Don Maxheimer, Mark Osgood, Richard Grathwohl, Darrell Stoll and George Bigelow, of Mt. Pulaski; Lyman Wise, Lawndale; Danny Bock, Elkhart; Danny Gaydosch, Lincoln; Ben D. Conrady, Hartsburg; and Bill Lueschen and Charles Begolka, Atlanta.

Parents and leaders present were: Henry Gaydosch, Richard Begolka and John Lueschen.

Injured in Fall

Seventy-year-old Andy Stone is in Lincoln Memorial hospital with a broken arm and dislocated shoulder but he didn't get the injuries by falling off a motor scooter, as was reported Thursday.

He fell while walking on Chicago street, it was reported today. Stone was trying to tell hospital officials that he injured the same shoulder five years ago when he fell off a motor scooter and apparently they misunderstood him and thought that was how he got the recent injury.

Stone hasn't been on a motor scooter since he was injured five years ago, according to today's report.

Plan for Loans Wins Approval Of Some Others in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) said today he will oppose any part of the administration's new foreign aid program that might lead to "a perpetuity of spending abroad."

A number of other senators, including Fulbright (D-Ark.) and Capehart (R-Ind.) applauded, however, a proposal to set up a fund to provide loans for economic development abroad and put all foreign aid on a long-range basis.

A major point in the new approach, as it was outlined by Secretary of State Dulles, is a lending program he said might reach as high as 750 million dollars annually in the years ahead.

Tied in with this is the recommendation that funds for economic assistance be separated from appropriations for military arms aid and defense support for countries with which the United States has military defense agreements.

The arms aid would be included in the appropriations bill for the Defense Department.

FAVORS COMMITTEE

Fulbright told interviewers that authorization of these military aid and defense support funds should be placed under the jurisdiction of the Armed Services Committee.

He said its emphasis should be placed on loans for aiding underdeveloped countries to build roads, ports, irrigation, power and other projects that will enable them ultimately to become self-supporting.

But Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said the Dulles program "looks far into the future."

"While I am in favor of making economic development assistance we authorized in the form of loans, I am not going to support anything that lends itself to making the foreign aid program a permanent affair."

He raised a similar objection in questioning Dulles Monday, but Dulles said he thought private industry could take over the financing after a proper economic climate had been created.

Neither Dulles nor Deputy Secretary of Defense Reuben B. Robertson, could give full details of the revised program.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) said today there is no agreement between Republicans and Southern Democrats to delay action by Congress on a civil rights program until next year.

Eastland, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee which is considering an administration bill, was asked if he had any such agreement with Republican members.

"No, sir," Eastland replied. Then he added with a grin: "I wish I had."

SMOKES AT AGE OF FIVE

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Billie Smith has to take his thumb from his mouth before he can light up a cigar, puff on a cigarette or chew tobacco.

That's because Billie, who's smoking and chewing for four years now, is still only 5.

"He just has a craving for it," explains his mother, Mrs. Bill Smith. "He started out on chewing tobacco when he was a year old, wanting bites off daddy's plug."

"Then he'd want puffs off daddy's cigars. The next thing we knew, he was demanding his own cigars. You might say he's been smoking cigars all of his life, but he only took up cigarettes eight months ago."

Says his father: "Billie smokes a pack of cigarettes a day and about one cigar. Of course, I don't let him smoke a pack every day. Cut him off about every third day, because that's pretty expensive."

Principal speakers at the rally were State Representatives Paul Simon of Troy and Allen Dixon of Belleville.

Simon stressed the importance of citizens participating in politics at every level. He said the democratic process can only have a solid foundation if parties are solid at the lowest levels.

He urged his listeners to take more active part in politics at all levels and recruit others to do the same.

Simon praised Mayor Feldman. He said Lincoln has increased in size by one-third in the last few years without an increase in taxes.

He also praised Lincoln and Mayor Feldman for the acquisition of the Cutler-Hammer plant. He said cities throughout Illinois are envious of Lincoln because of the plant.

Rep. Dixon was critical of Gov. Stratton. He said the Governor has broken his campaign promises "not to raise taxes." He cited additional sales taxes and the public utility tax, "which was passed on to the consumer," as examples.

Fred Kavelman, Gene Slayton and Edwin Lowe.

Congressmen Stir Bitter Words

Secretary Brucker

Secretary of the Army Brucker's offer to conky trip—he says it's "coincidence" the weekend—has stirred bitter comment could possibly cost the Army 100 appropriations," said Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.), operations subcommittee which handles is arranged for one purpose and said Rep. Burdick (R-ND).

wake of congressional criticism, that the trip "is not a free junket to the Derby at the expense of the taxpayers, but a serious expedition."

He added that the Army show dates were tentatively set last fall as May 2-3 without regard for derby day. He added that he changed them to May 3-4 after Rep. Robinson (R-Ky) mentioned in March that Derby day was May 4. The change wouldn't add "a thin dime" to the Army's costs, he said.

In criticizing Brucker's invitation, Mahon told the House Thursday.

"No doubt the Army considers this good public relations with Congress but it is not."

"And it ought to be obvious to the most naive that it is rightly bad public relations with about 170 million plain Americans, most of whom are clamoring for economy and good management in the government."

Mahon added he was issuing a "public warning" to Brucker to stop that sort of spending.

Burdick added with sarcasm that the Army shouldn't "be so parsimonious about the race tickets—they should pay that too."

News Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cravens have returned to their home in Williamsville after vacationing for a month in the south.

Members and guests of the intermediate MYF who plan to go to the swim party Saturday are to meet at the church at 4:30 p.m. Saturday and each one is to have a permission slip from his or her parent.

Chestnut Community club will meet at 7:30 p.m., Friday and members are to take cupcakes.

The various church societies of the congregations of the Lutheran churches of Lincoln, Mt. Pulaski, Chestnut, and New Holland are sponsoring an Easter party at the state school. Members will help distribute the gifts after the service Tuesday at 9 a.m. at the school.

Mrs. Luther Dearborn is the newly elected secretary of General PTA. Her name appeared incorrectly in the Thursday write-up.

Approximately 36 employees from the Lincoln State School will attend the ninth annual mental health luncheon at the Army in Springfield Tuesday, April 30. Mike Gorman, author of "Every Other Bed" will be guest speaker.

The City of Lincoln will receive $5,937 in state motor fuel tax funds for March.

William Jackson Funeral Monday

MT. PULASKI — William W. Jackson, well known farmer of the Chestnut and Kenney communities, died unexpectedly at 11:20 a.m. Friday while sitting in a rocking chair at the home of a son, Hobart in Chicago.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday from Schall Funeral Home. Friends may call there Sunday afternoon and evening.

Besides the son in Chicago, he also leaves another son, William Jr., of Decatur. Jackson was a member of K. P. and Odd Fellows lodges and a 60 year member of the latter. (M)

WHERE?

A perfect example of how not to report a fire was received by the Lincoln fire department today. Someone called the department and said there was a fire at the Texaco service station.

Before firemen could ask which station, the person hung up the phone. There are three Texaco service stations in and near Lincoln.

The fire was finally located at the Evans service station on route 66. A car had caught on fire there. Damage was reported as slight.

Three Hurt in Car, Truck Crash

Three persons were injured when a car and a truck collided at a 30th and Pulaski intersection Thursday at 4 p.m.

Claude Lafferty, 38, Mt. Pulaski was driver of the truck involved. He suffered back and hip injuries and was brought to St. Clara's hospital here and admitted.

Clara Hayter, 27, Atlanta, driver of the car and her mother, Mrs. Louise Beck, 52, Atlanta, were treated at Lincoln Memorial hospital after the accident.

Mrs. Hayter suffered bruises and cuts on her knees and Mrs. Beck suffered a small head wound and cuts and bruises.

The truck rolled over after the collision and was damaged.

Mrs. Sam Turpin Funeral Service Will be Sunday

Ira Turpin, 77, registered nurse for eight years at Lincoln State school, who has lived with her daughter in Mt. Pulaski the last five years, died at 1:50 a.m. Friday at Deaconess Memorial home.

The body was taken to Schall Funeral Home at Mt. Pulaski where friends may call tonight. The body will be moved to J. J. Moran Funeral Home at Decatur where friends may call Saturday after 3 p.m.

Services will be at the Decatur funeral home Sunday at 3 p.m. with the Rev. John Burns, pastor of First Presbyterian church in Lincoln, where Mrs. Turpin was a member officiating.

Burial will be in Mt. Gilead cemetery.

Mrs. Turpin was born at Decatur Nov. 15, 1859, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann.

She was married to Sam Turpin, a husband, a daughter, Mrs. George Wadsworth of Mt. Pulaski, a grandson, four sisters, Mrs. Clara Barber, Hannibal Mo., Mrs. Marie Huston, St. Louis, Mrs. Georgia Hedrick, San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. May Robertson, Barabank, Calif. and three brothers, Raymond, Princeton, Ky., Earl Long, Beach, Calif., and the Rev. Conway Portland, Ore.

Two sons preceded her in death.

Coupling Hits, Hurts Farmer

Robert Faith, Mt. Pulaski farmer, was strayed at Lincoln Memorial hospital Thursday for possible hip injuries after he was struck by a coupling as he was working with a tractor and combine.

Others treated at Memorial Thursday are Henry Hornbush, 33, 327 N. Sheridan st., injured foot from angle iron falling on it; and Jerry Melton, 15, 820 N. Sherman st., injured left leg while high jumping at high school.

Carolyn Donah, 2, 103 S. Monroe st., was treated at St. Clara's Thursday for a head bruise suffered in a fall at home.

FRIDAY NIGHT:

Community Players Will Stage "Bernardine" Again

"Bernardine" a heart-warming play about youths and their problems, was presented Thursday night by the Lincoln College Community Players in the Lincoln College auditorium. William St. Gall was the director. The play will also be presented Friday, at 8:15 p.m.

The main people were eight youths who might be called "teenies." Dead End kids, These kids loved practical jokes but they were sham hoodlums. They were good kids from good families, trying to grow up.

The leader of this gang, played by Bill Crawford of Chicago, was a fascinating young man who had a twinkle in his eye and a supple imagination. The rest of the gang was played by Dave Goodham, Lincoln; John, Haines, Highland; Park, Green, East Lake Forest; Joe Herro, Geneseo; Wm. Tom, Greenwald, Crystal Lake; and Bill White.

Dave Reno, Evanston, played the part of Buford Weldy, the only really unhappy member of the crowd. He wanted to be a "big wheel" the way the others said they were, but somehow he couldn't make it. His mother's watchful affection bored and irked him. His adventures was amusing and funny.

Plays Girl Friend

His girl friend, Jean Cantor, was played by Joan, Lincoln, and his mother by Joan Gehlbach, Lincoln. Jean's mother was played by Gerry Brannon, Lincoln. Helen Green, Union played the part of a waitress, Dennis Scully, Peoria was Buford's chum; Stanley Kalish, Chicago, a bullboy; Bill, Landolt, Park Ridge, a noted "swell"; Fred Bunge, Downer's Grove, a hotel manager; David Barnett, Palatine, a gentleman on the street; three girls planning to meet in the lobby of the Lincoln Hotel were played by Nanette, Bureau, Aurora; Susan, Kenosha, Crystal Lake; and Eloise, Hatchcraft, Lincoln.

The four scene shifters who sang were Charles Rodgers, Easton; Gerald Brunken, Maywood; Dave Walters, Milwaukee; and Hal Every, Evanston. Dennis Kohn of Lincoln played the part of Enid, Larry, whom Buford Weldy admired very much. The dachshund, Hildegarde, was used through the courtesy of Mrs. L. J. Miller, Hildegarde is a long haired dachshund born in Stuttgart, Germany. She is known to the Girl Scouts of Lincoln for having been used as a model for for rearing her grandchild and is modestly proud that she "put him through high school". He now attending his third year at a teacher's college, appears to have absorbed some of the examples of service she has exemplified.

We consider Mrs. Wheeler an outstanding person as well as an outstanding employee. We have tried to show how she brings to her job a highly developed sense of responsibility; how she has transferred attitudes of family service into the confines of an institution for the mentally retarded and how she has gone beyond her job to provide a home-like atmosphere for "her girls". It is perhaps equally significant that she is a somewhat shy and unassuming person who sees her duty large and submerges herself to it.

Perhaps her attitude is expressed best in her statement about being selected as an outstanding employee. She said, "It's important to feel I worked well and am liked by a good many and I'm awfully proud to have recognition, but I wouldn't want any recognition for just doing my duties".

DREAM REALIZED:

Chicagoan Flying 70 Relatives, Friends to Holiday in Sweden

CHICAGO (U)—The "fulfillment of a lifelong dream" is at hand for 57-year-old Ragnar Benson, who is picking up the tab for a $50,000 three-week holiday in Sweden with 70 relatives and friends.

The Benson party, flying in a chartered Scandinavian Airlines DC-6, was scheduled to land in Malmö, Sweden, today.

The airliner left Chicago Sunday night amid shouts of "bon voyage" from friends and neighbors.

Benson, who immigrated from Sweden with a sister in 1911 at the age of 12, told newsmen before departing O'Hare International Airport:

"My heart is so full of the thankfulness for what the United States has done for me."

The Swedish immigrant became a bricklayer's apprentice in 1915 and now heads an 80 million dollar a year engineering firm.

Benson said the trip is his way of expressing gratitude to some of the people who helped him as a newly arrived immigrant.

About half the guests are relatives, including Benson's wife and son and the son's six children. Some 20 employees of the engineering firm, Ragnar Benson, Inc., and other friends make up the party.

The group was expected to return to Chicago May 6. While abroad, Benson's guests will be free to do as they choose. Side

Tractor Upsets, Injures Butler

A Greenville farm hand, father of six children, was seriously injured at 6 p.m. Sunday when a tractor he was driving went off Hubly bridge southeast of Mason City.

He is Robert Butler, 32, an employee of the John Hubly farm.

The tractor fell 20 feet and landed upside down, pinning Butler underneath it. He was found by passing motorists and was brought to Abraham Lincoln Memorial hospital.

Butler suffered a crushed chest, crushed ribs and punctured lungs. Hospital authorities said he had a "fair night."

Licensed to Wed

Charles R. Woll, Lincoln, and Loretta M. Shawgo, Atlanta, Ga., were licensed to wed Saturday.

They were married at 2 p.m. Sunday at St. James Catholic Church, seven blocks from Lincoln, Mich.

GOAL - EGGS

The sixth annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the City Playground and Recreation department, will be Saturday at Lincoln college campus.

Sacks of Easter candy will be distributed upon the campus by Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. Some of the 1,500 sacks will contain real hen eggs which will entitle the child to a prize. Local retail merchants are donating the merchandise prizes.

Kindergarten and pre-school children will be allowed to hunt at 9 a.m. followed by children from first through sixth grades at 10 a.m.

Laenna Turns in $265 for R. Cross

One township has turned in a complete report for the Red Cross fund drive, county chairman Joe Scanlon reported today.

Laenna township's drive netted $265, he said. The goal was $225. Mrs. Robert Howe was township chairman.

Mrs. Daniel Handlin, chairman of the drive in Lincoln, announced that the funds here will be collected by mail.

"Due to illness and a small variety of other problems we are ending our Red Cross drive by mail instead of picking the pledges up in person," she said.

With new tornado and flood disasters nationally and our local blood bank of utmost concern we are hoping the public will help us reach our fund goal," she added.

Rudolph Luebbers Funeral Tuesday

EMDEN — Rudolph John Luebbers, 68, died at Abraham Lincoln Memorial Hospital at Lincoln at 5:30 a.m. Sunday after a lingering illness. He had been at the hospital about 18 days.

The body was taken to the Hallmann Funeral Home at Delevan. Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday from Emden Methodist church. Burial will be in Cream Ridge cemetery.

Visitation will begin at 7 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.

He was born at Emden, March 10, 1889, a son of Geord and Katherine Rustus Luebbers. He had farmed near Emden his entire life. He never married.

Surviving are his sister, Miss Sarah Luebbers, Emden; three brothers, George, Emden; Gus, Reemt, Albion, Mich. He was preceded in death by two brothers.

21st Annual Easter Rites At Bald Knob in Illinois

ALTO PASS, Ill. (AP) — Visitors from 10 Midwest states were traveling this weekend to nearby Bald Knob, southern Illinois' highest point, for the 21st annual Easter sunrise services there.

This village by Rt. 127 is the jumping off point for the long climb up the 1,030-foot hill where pinnacle services will start Sunday. Upwards of 15,000 persons have attended previous Bald Knob services.

Architectural plans have been made for a giant 500-foot cross — the world's largest — to be built on Bald Knob. A chapel, meditation rooms and elevator are proposed inside the lighted cross, to be visible in a 7,500-square mile area of southern Illinois.

In Orchard Area

Even without it, Bald Knob stands out in this lowland area. From its top can be seen miles of federal forests and the heart of the Illinois orchard country. To Easter meditation in 1936. The service now is an annual meditation sponsored by the Bald Knob Christian Foundation, which with the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is co-sponsoring the proposed mammoth cross.

Services this Easter Sunday at Bald Knob, some 80 miles south-east of St. Louis, will feature four speakers and music by the Bald Knob chorus and Wayne Stevers of Mount City, Ill.

To Hear Dr. Holland

Dr. John Holland, pastor of Chicago's "Little Brown Church of the Air," will give the sermon at 6 o'clock sunrise services. Other speakers include Dr. Laurence C. Jones, founder and president of the Piney Woods (Miss.) Country Life School; the Rev. George Mulligan, superintendent of the Rockford (Ill.) Methodist Church district, and the Rev. R. A. Sherrell, evangelist, Farmington, Mo.

A reception dinner for the speakers is planned Saturday at Giant City State Park at Malcan-

Youth-Adult Meeting Set

Expansion of present facilities of the city of Lincoln's recreation department will be one of the proposals under discussion at an open meeting on youth problems at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Lincoln Community high school.

Robert Stearns, new director of the Rec program, members of the city recreation commission, interested civic, fraternal and church groups and others are invited to the meeting to exchange views on the subject.

Principal George Kriviskey of Lincoln high school will attend with a group of students, who will speak for themselves regarding youth needs in the city.

Named Chairman

At a meeting March 20 in the county courthouse, Harry J. Trott was elected acting chairman of the citizens' group, which is attempting to provide space for young people to gather during after-school hours.

Attending last month's meeting with County Judge Leland H. Dunham were representatives from the Lions club, Moose lodge, county law enforcement agencies, schools and the Christian church.

First Egg Hunt Called Success

ATLANTA — About 200 youngsters took part in the first annual Easter Egg hunt, sponsored by the Atlanta Lions Club Saturday.
The hunt was scheduled for 10 a.m. but because of rain, was conducted at 4 p.m. at the ball field. Committee chairman, Leonard Batterton, with his committee helpers, Merlin Warrick, Dick Howser, Pat Snooks, Bill Arnold,
Lyle Chrisman, Basil Brown,
Albert Kinkrad and Wayne Compton, were in charge of the hunt.
Sixty-three dozen eggs colored by Lions were hid and prizes were won by finding surprise wrapped eggs.

The ball field was roped off into sections for youngsters up to three years, from three to six, first grade, second grade, third grade through the fourth. Helpers were also Boy Scouts, William Jackson and Michael Swearingen. The club feels like this was a great success and many more projects have been planned for the future, says president, Wayne Harris.

Storms on U.S. Plains

(By The Associated Press)

More storms battered sections of the southern and central plains today as new floods threatened rain-soaked Texas.

Rivers and streams in many parts of Texas overflowed as torrential rains hit the big state again Wednesday, along with tornadoes, hail and severe electrical storms.

At least four persons drowned and hundreds were forced to leave their lowland homes.

No casualties were reported in the areas hit by tornadoes and property damage was light.

Thunderstorms with heavy rainfall in some areas rumbled across the lower Mississippi Valley and in the lower Great Lakes region early today.

At the same time, heavy rainfall was reported in western New York state, with nearly one inch falls in Buffalo and Olean.
