Letter Box

On behalf of the American Legion and Auxiliary, we wish to express our thanks to all those who contributed to the success of our poppy program.

There are so many people to thank: the Lincoln Daily Courier School children, teachers, and the volunteer poppy workers. The greatest share of our gratitude must go to the people who purchased our poppies. This year, like so many in the past, our sales were good — thanks to the public's generosity.

We know that the disabled veterans, who made these poppies, also thank all of you.

Sincerely yours
American Legion Post 263
and Auxiliary Unit 263

Four Hurt in Crash on 66

Four persons injured Sunday in a two-car crash on route 66 a mile south of Atlanta had "fair nights" in Lincoln Memorial hospital, it was reported today.

Cars driven by Lonnie Davis, 20, St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Isabel White, 45, Springfield, collided, apparently as Mrs. White was making a left turn.

Most seriously injured was Frank Raymond of University City, Mo., who suffered a severe head injury, a broken arm and possible back injuries. He and his wife, Letha, 64, were passengers in the car driven by Davis.

Mrs. Raymond suffered cuts on the back, a shoulder injury and possible back injuries.

Davis suffered cuts on the head, nose and knee plus shock.

On Last Lap of Crop Planting in Logan County

Moore's Widow Once of Logan

The DeWitt area farmer found dead in a wooded area near his home Thursday was the husband of a former Atlanta woman.

The body of Wilson Moore was found after he had been missing since early Wednesday. About 200 persons looked for him through Wednesday night after his wife, the former Margaret Frantz, reported him missing.

Moore, 40, had apparently committed suicide. He is the father of five children. He and Mrs. Frantz were married at Mt. Pulaski in 1934.

Mrs. Moore said her husband has been despondent because of poor health.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Doris Hawkins, Clinton, and Dorothy at home; three sons, Donald, David and Richard, all at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of near DeWitt, and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Robertson, Clinton.

Voices Plea - 'Let Me Die'

CHICAGO, Ill. — A 64-year-old Chicago attorney who killed his ex-wife and critically wounded himself was in a hospital today, pleading to die.

However, doctors at Illinois Masonic Hospital said the lawyer, Bailey Stanton, 64, was in "fair" condition and had a 50-50 or better chance to live.

Police said Stanton killed his former wife, Dr. Margaret Stanton, 48, by putting a bullet through her heart as he sat beside her in her Cadillac automobile on a North Side street.

Then, police said, Stanton shot himself behind one ear and below the heart.

Indicates "Pact"

Stanton left a note indicating the shootings were the result of a "suicide pact." However, police said they believe the attorney murdered Dr. Stanton and then attempted suicide because he had heard she planned to marry another man.

Stanton, who also was an author, art fancier and explorer, gave his wife an orchid at a restaurant meeting shortly before the shootings.

He left a note in the car declaring their love was beyond reason. It read in part:

"We spent the evening in each other's arms as husband and wife. Ours is a love beyond reason. We do not plan murder, but departure by mutual desire and after kissing tomorrow Thursday morning."

Favorable Weather, Help Ease Situation

Nearly a week of fair, dry summer-like weather has been a boon to Logan county farmers, who have been industrious in planting their corn and beans the past few days.

Lands that have not stood under water are completely planted for the most part, according to Floyd Evans, of the Logan County Farm Bureau. Water is still standing in some low spots, and the soils too damp to work near creeks.

Most of the corn had been planted in the county by late in the week, in time for a good crop year. Farmers had feared that continued rains would prevent planting until too late.

Give $4,818 For Cancer

Contributions to the annual fund drive of the Logan county chapter, American Cancer Society, total $4,818.96, with nearly all committees reporting, according to Mrs. Louise Gehlbach, campaign chairman.

Donations of $152.35 from Chester township, $136.65 from Aetna and $121.73 in Atlanta township are the latest to report. Mrs. Melvin Gehlbach is Chester township chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ray Kurtz, Mrs. Ray Yagow, Mrs. Walter Klockenga, Mrs. Clifford Wilmet, Mrs. Sam Sparks, Mrs. Dewey Salvers and Mrs. Wilbur Altman.

Chairman for the Aetna township solicitation was Mrs. John Gardner. Her helpers were Mrs. Alvin Remschler, Mrs. E. J. Meyer, Mrs. Merle Riedle, Mrs. Clifford Leimbach, Mrs. Ronald Bula, Mrs. Floyd Miller, Mrs. James Schilling, Mrs. M. P.

Delayed By Rain

A manpower pool organized by Lincoln, Mt. Pulaski and other city residents, helped the farmers to become "caught up" with the spring planting, delayed as much as a month because of intermittent showers.

Neighboring farmers also are helping one another, and when the low spots are ready to be worked, farmers having their crops in will assist those less fortunate.

Bean planting has progressed rapidly this week.

The state-federal crop reporting service reports that throughout the state, two-thirds of the corn crop and about one-third of the bean crop has now been planted. Last year at this time, 98 per cent of the corn and 90 per cent of the bean crops were in the ground.

Services will be there at 2:30 p.m. Sunday with the Rev. John Muir officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Pulaski cemetery.

The decedent was born Aug. 8, 1903 at Emden, the son of William and the late Pearl Ireland Bowles. He married Verna Atteberry in Lincoln Jan. 8, 1923, and she survives. Wisconsin to Vote Aug. 27

MADISON, Wis. (U. S. — Wisconsin voters will vote in a special election Aug. 27 to fill the U. S. Senate vacancy caused by the death of Sen. Joseph McCarthy. The term will expire in January 1959.

The date for the balloting was set Thursday by Gov. Verper Thomson, who had announced last Monday that the post would be filled in a special election.

Denied appointive power by state law, Thomson had the option of leaving the office vacant until the regular election in the fall of 1958.

McCarthy died May 2 of a liver ailment.

Election Dates Set
Thomson, a Republican, as was McCarthy, also announced that a primary election, to qualify Republican and Democratic nominees, will be held July 30.

Candidates will have until July 12 to file nomination papers, which they may begin circulating June 18.

Four Republicans have announced as candidates. They are former Gov. Walter Kohler Jr., Lt. Gov. Warren B. Knowles, former Rep. Glenn Davis and Rep. Alvin O'Konski.

There is only one announced Democratic candidate, Arthur McGurn, a 73-year-old retired federal employee from Kenosha. Considering making the race are Reps. Clement Zablocki and Henry Reuss, both of Milwaukee, and three-time candidate for governor William Proxmire of Madison.

Cong. Springer Supports Bill of Farmer Inter

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman William L. Springer of the 22nd District of Illinois this week strongly supported extension of the Agriculture Trade Development Act. A parliamentary maneuver has postponed final action on the bill, perhaps for another full week.

In supporting the measure which is due to expire June 30 unless renewed, Congressman Springer pointed out that it has been a major factor in cutting down the quantities of surplus farm commodities held in government warehouses and putting those commodities to effective use.

The Agriculture Trade Development and Assistance Act is more commonly known as Public Law 480.

Cites Progress
In his House speech, the Congressman said: "I am sure that all of us who are vitally interested in agriculture are heartened by the progress made in expanding agricultural exports. Last year's exports were the highest in quantity for the last 30 years."

"The gain in exports is proceeding at an accelerated rate during the current season," Congressman Springer said. "For the first six months of the fiscal year overseas shipments totaled 2.3 billion dollars. This is 40 per cent higher than the export total on the same date last year. It appears that for the entire 1956-57 season our agricultural exports will total as much as $4.4 or $4.5 billion."

Combats Surplus
Congressman Springer explained that Public Law 480 works to increase overseas disposal of surpluses.

Extension of this program will permit us to plan our position program well in advance for next year and facilitate orderly disposal of commodities during that period."

"Our emphasis will continue to be concentrated in underdeveloped countries. Sales we made to expand consumption, regain or establish new markets to meet foreign needs from crop failures and expand reserve stocks overseas. This legislation is of vital importance to the eight counties of the 22nd Congressional district of Illinois. This Congressional District grows more beans than any other Congressional District in the States. The continuation of this program will greatly assist in keeping soybeans at a good price on the open market."

State Legislature

Veto Override Try Comes up Wednesday

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. (U. P.) — Illinois lawmakers began a five-day week today, stepping up their working hours in order to dispose of a backlog of hundreds of bills during the remaining three weeks of the session.

One of the major events on the week's calendar will come Wednesday, when the Senate will decide whether to override Gov. Stratton's veto of a bill reducing fees of public administrators. The house already has overridden it.

The bill, by Rep. Robert McCarthy (D-Lincoln), would permit non-resident heirs to nominate administrators of estates they inherit in Illinois. Such estates now are handled by public administrators.

The Senate also may vote on final approval of Stratton's traffic safety program, which includes increasing the state police force and hiking driver's license fees for expanded high school driver training.

House action is expected to center on passage roll calls involving a proposed Korean bonus and a constitutional amendment to lower the voting age from 21 to 18. Comes Up Tuesday

Stratton's state school aid budget of 227 million dollars, which Democrats have been trying to boost, will be considered Tuesday by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The program already has passed the House but new attempts are being readied to revise the allotment upward.

A proposal to call a constitutional convention for rewriting the Illinois Constitution, lying dormant in the Legislature for four months, finally gets a hearing Wednesday by the House Executive Committee. It is expected to be killed, either by the committee or when it reaches a vote on the floor.

Shocking Jump

PHILADELPHIA (U. P.) — Stray electricity from abandoned trolley tracks has been jumping around the city and causing all sorts of trouble.

The problem occurs when a trolley line is abandoned but the track system and substation still serve other lines. Then electricity still flows through the unused track even if it's covered by paving.

And when a break occurs in the track the current, unable to flow along the rail, starts jumping around. It looks for the nearest metal conductor and leaps. Officials are now trying to locate the break.

First Estimate On Wheat Crop

P. 7 first estimate ... WASHINGTON (U.S.)—The Agriculture Department Monday forecast this year's federally-controlled wheat crop of 970,533,000 bushels.

This estimate is the first for the full crop and is 26,674,000 bushels less than the 997,207,000 bushels produced last year. It is considerably below the 10-year (1946-55) average of 1,131,000,000 bushels.

This year's wheat crop is being grown on one of the smallest acreages in many years. Government crop control measures and the new soil bank land retirement program curtailed plantings in steps to prevent production of additional surplus supplies.

Show Comparisons

The winter wheat crop was forecast at 735,270,000 bushels compared with 703,208,000 indicated a month ago. Production was 734,965,000 bushels last year and 822,471,000 for the 10-year average.

The spring wheat crop was estimated at 234,813,000 bushels. This is the first forecast of the year. Production was 232,212,000 last year and 268,529,000 for the 10-year average.

The peach crop was forecast at 71,398,000 bushels compared with 69,033,000 last year and 64,251,000 for the 10-year average.

Swim Week Changes in Time Slate

There will be a change in the time schedule this year for Learn to Swim Week.

The change is a result of urging by Swim Week officials for parents to have their children continue instruction after passing the beginners test.

Since most of this instruction must be given on land or shallow water and due to the fact that the intermediate and swimmer classes are increasing in size, the staff has decided that for the protection of the pupil and for better qualified instruction, these groups should have a time set aside from beginners.

Therefore, intermediate and swimmer pupils, regardless of age, will have lessons from 11:15 to 12 noon.

The rest of the schedule is as follows:

Beginner boys (7 through 12) 8:45 to 9:45 a.m.
Beginner girls (7 through 12) 9:45 to 10:30 a.m.
Tiny tots (3 to 7) 10:30 to 11:00 a.m.
Boys and girls (over 12) 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

Adults 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.
Intermediate and swimmers, all ages 11:15 to 12 noon.

Transportation will be furnished again this year. Buses will leave from the Recreation Center at 15 minutes before each class time.

The registration committee is requesting an early mailing for the registration blank, now appearing daily in the Courier.

Storm Passes Near State Capitol Block

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (U.S.)—A small tornado swept through the state capital city early today damaging homes and knocking down trees and power lines.

No injuries were immediately reported. Lightning, accompanying the tornado struck four homes and started small fires in them.

The tornado missed the capital building by about eight blocks as it roared from the southwest part of Springfield into the farm land northwest of the city of 82,000.

The weather bureau at Springfield said damage was held down because the funnel generally did not come very close to the ground.

Yet, the funnel did knock down trees, some of which demolished cars.

Light and power lines were down in some sections.

Police rescued several families who were trapped in their homes when roofs fell in. Many homes had windows, roofs, porches and garages damaged.

Streets blocked. Police were patrolling neighborhood where the tornado struck, keeping residents away from live wires, and directing traffic.

Many streets were blocked by fallen trees.

City street, light, and power crews, and crews from the Central Illinois Light Co. were sent to repair damage.

When the tornado struck, most of Springfield was asleep.

One woman said "A noise like a freight train woke me up. I ran to the window and saw a tunnel shaped object. I moved away from the window and as quickly as it came, it passed."

Another person termed the tornado as "a roaring sound," and a man described the noise as "a sound I never heard before."

Stands for Heritage

The stars and stripes, the speaker proclaimed, stands for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness — a guarantee of the freedoms "which are our heritage." He described other flags used before the official adoption of the Stars and Stripes in 1777 and reported the mottoes going with them. At that time, the liberties of individuals were new and important, and since men have fought and died for the liberties symbolized by the flag.

"Do we need war to stress the importance of these liberties?" Klink asked — proclaiming "No" in the same breath. He expressed alarm and chagrin over the neglect of liberties as demonstrated by the many who do not exercise their voting franchise. "Is that a measure of the interest in our liberties," the state's attorney asked.

Danger Involved

and other apathies, Klink warned that "government grows out of people or over people." He bemoaned the prevailing negative and attitude, although defending criticism as long as it is accompanied by corrective action.

"Flag Day is a time to reap-praise what we have — a rich country with a high standard of living — fine churches and schools." The Flag Day speaker appealed for open, honest, frank discussion of the issues of the day "to remove the haze and maze" surrounding them.

The colors were advanced by Legionnaires and V.F.W.s to open the program. "You're A Grand Old Flag" was the processional tune. McKinlay urged flying of Old Glory on Flag Day and closed the program by leading the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

A radio call brought 50 policemen from nearby suburbs and the state police. They poured machine gun, rifle fire and tear gas into the saloon until they discovered Argentine had escaped.

Government Men to Take W.O.C. Posts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Businessmen "borrowed" from their companies for government duty no longer will get executive posts in the Commerce Department.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks disclosed today that government career men will replace some 25 "WOC" officials in the department's Business and Defense Services Administration as rapidly as the WOCs' terms of service expire. There will be virtually none left by the end of this year.

"WOC" is slang for "without compensation." It applies to industry executives who serve in federal agencies without government pay but continue to collect salaries from their private companies.

This compared with 788,902 units on the same date a year ago. But it was an increase of more than 55,200 units over the total counted on May 1 of this year.

Changed Life Ends

NEW YORK (AP) — The changed life of a swindler-turned-philanthropist has ended.

Moses Turman, 60, died Sunday in Mount Sinai Hospital after a month's illness.

Turman was sent to Sing Sing Prison in 1925 for forgery. He was accused of pyramiding a $100 loan into a debt of almost two million dollars. His manipulations earned him the titles of "inverse financial wizard," and "would-be Napoleon of finance."

Pardoned in 1933, Turman left prison determined to start a second life and repay the debt against him.

He became a partner in an office equipment firm. As the company prospered, he rose to vice president. Turman prospered too and began repaying his debts.

Turman was later credited with repaying virtually all the money lost as a result of his manipulations. And he poured out more money in philanthropic projects.

Reverse Decision In School Matter

Decisions of the Logan county circuit court and the third district appellate court were reversed Monday by the Illinois supreme court, in a ruling that 440 acres of land may not be detached from the Williamsville school district and annexed to the Elkhart district.

The high court ordered injunctive relief asked by attorneys for the Williamsville district. A petition for the annexation to the Elkhart district was approved by the Logan county board of school trustees.

The unit district sought an injunction against the board's order, but the suit was dismissed by both the circuit court and the appellate court.

Germis Living in Earth's Soil Able To Grow on Mars

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (U)—Evidence that germs living in the earth's soil can live under conditions existing on Mars was reported today by three U.S. Air Force space medicine researchers.

Germis taken from lava, from the Painted Desert of Arizona and from soil in Texas survived virtually without oxygen in temperatures that ranged from a comfortable 70 degrees Fahrenheit to 95 degrees below zero. Their only atmosphere was nitrogen.

The tests were made at the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine, San Antonio, Tex. The findings were reported to a meeting of the International Mars Committee and Astronomical Society of the Pacific by Dr. Hubertus Strughold of the Air Force school.

The tests suggest, Dr. Strughold said, that life has a little understood ability to spring up and perpetuate itself in surroundings entirely different from those on earth.

This could mean that other planets having atmospheres and other environmental conditions seemingly lethal for most life

Burden on Baker's Union, Sen. McClellan Declares

WASHINGTON — Sen. McClellan declares the way open for possible

MONTH OF ROSES:

Personal Letter From San Jose

Dear friends:

June is supposed to be the month of roses and there really are some beauties in and around San Jose. Mrs. George Youle has a red climbing rose running up the corner of the porch that is lovely. She has a changeable one, too. It has red and yellow roses on the same stem! The prettiest rose I saw in the country was a big bright red one at the Frank Meyer's home.

Mrs. John Diers has a red rose on the fence that brightens up the whole street, here in town. Most every yard has a rose bush, even if it is just a little one. Maybe it's because they're easy to take care of. I've got one started, too, and if it survives the children, dogs, mower, and a few other hazards, I may have a pretty rambler rose one of these days.

Change in Fields

It's truly amazing what a change has been made in the oats fields in just a week's time. Some of them sure didn't look very good just last week. Then this morning, they had such a nice green color and were all heading out. Ralph Henninger has a really nice field of oats. You see corn of all sizes, but it all looks good. The same goes for beans.

A few warm days with just a nice shower every now and then (if we could only control it) and

Out Of Hospital

Mrs. Parsons is home from the hospital. Of course her leg will be in a cast for some time. Mrs. Little Wolf is not very well at her home, and Mrs. Stella Groves is staying with her part time. There are still a few cases of measles around town, little Denise Kirk the latest to get them.

We picked a few black raspberries this morning. The strawberries are about gone. All these rains have been good for blackberries, too.

I just noticed what a suntan the kiddies are getting. The boys think it's great to go without a shirt. Swimming helps them tan. Too bad they have to go to Delavan every time they want to swim, though. That would be a swell platform for some enthusiastic politician — a swimming pool for every town in his state — I'll bet he would be the most with all the teenage crowd, anyway.

This is all for this week.

HAROLD CHARLES FUCINI was among students who earned degrees at the University of Illinois June 15. He is an engineer, graduated with honors and holds the key to the Kappa Nu, Tau Beta Phi, and Eta Kappa Nu societies. Kris said he did not volunteer his services, but was called in by police.

Dr. Frank Calabro, head of Bayview Hospital, said, "there's no question of any bill from us."

Stiriz said he felt the doctor's bill was justified. "Just because I don't want to get paid doesn't mean the doctor shouldn't," he said. He also said he didn't think the Hoopers were "very appreciative."

The construction company head said Woodson arrived on the scene late in the rescue operation and disobeyed orders by entering the shaft to get the boy.

More Familiar

He said other volunteers more familiar with the situation had been selected to go in. Woodson could have imperiled the whole operation, he charged.

No immediate comment from Woodson was available.

In addition to the medical bill, the Hoopers say they have other financial woes too. Mrs. Hooper said these included: Their newly-sodded lawn and garden were wrecked by the crowds and equipment on the rescue scene; their insurance rates have been raised because so many sight-seers come around; and they haven't yet recovered financially from the loss of wages in the aftermath of the ordeal.

Need Three H.S. Teachers

Meeting Monday night, the high school board of education offered a contract to William R. Fly of Oblong, Ill. to serve as assistant coach (football) as well as teacher of business subjects.

There are still three vacancies on the teaching staff for 1937-38, according to Principal George Krivisky. Needed are teachers of girls physical education, industrial arts, and English-newspaper sponsor.

The bid of Spellman & Co., for chain link fencing around the new high school was accepted by the board. Members discussed, but took no action, on bids for blacktopping the parking area.

Reports of progress on the new school were made by contractor and architect representatives.

Coffee Breaks Weaken Health

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. — A nutrition specialist asserted today that "the morning coffee break is weakening the health of our nation."

Dorothea Van Gundy of Arlington, Calif., member of the staff of the International Nutrition Laboratory, addressed the annual state conference of the Seventh Day Adventists. Miss Van Gundy said:

"Some 50 per cent of Americans suffer from low blood sugar. And that is caused largely by our national acceptance of the coffee break as well as too much sugar in our foods and our summertime overdosing on soda pop."

"No other race of people have as many ulcers and headaches as Americans. This is caused largely by the consumption of 3,000 cups of coffee every second in the U.S.A., with each cup containing from 1 1/4 to three grains of caffeine."

H-E School Bids 'Noed'

All bids received on sale of bonds for construction of additions to the Hartsburg and Emden grade schools were rejected as too high Monday night by the board of education of the Hartsburg-Emden community unit school district. The board will delay action to await a more favorable market.

Bids ranged from 4.59 per cent interest rate to 4.25 per cent, with 14 bonding companies present. Bids were presented both individually and jointly.

Several meetings have been conducted during the past months with a citizens' committee studying school needs. A survey by the University of Illinois was recently completed.

In accordance with a recommendation of the citizens' group, the board decided to build additions to both grade schools. Each addition is to contain two classrooms, an all-purpose room, rest rooms and a basement to house a kitchen and dining area.

The board had advertised for bids on sale of the bond issue prior to an election in order to place a definite rate of interest on the ballot. Acceptance of the bid would have been subject to the election.

Appeals to Sec. of Navy

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A teenage Marine private who was court-martialed after refusing to bear arms because of what he called "religious beliefs" has appealed his conviction to Secretary of the Navy Gates.

Peter Green 18, of Evanston, Ill. took his case to the Navy secretary after a similar appeal was turned down by the commandant of the Marine Corps, Gen. Randolph Pate.

Pate contended the case was still under review by the commanding officer of Camp Pendleton, Calif., Maj. Gen. George J. Good.

Secretary Gates' office said Monday it had heard about the appeal, but had not received it. For Disobedience.

Green was convicted at Camp Pendleton, of willfully disobeying an order to accept his rifle. He has served about one month of a 4-month term at hard labor.

Green and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Green of Evanston claim he should be given a conscientious objector's status. Green asserts that his church — the First Methodist of Evanston — is "against war."

Although no official comment has been issued on the appeal, some Pentagon officers said that Green volunteered to join the Marines, that he went through his boot training, including instruction in the firing of a rifle, but raised no objection until after he was assigned to a unit for more advanced training with weapons.

June is the time of the month when bagworms start to feed on your evergreens so you should have an eye open for them.

Virgil and Henry Marten, r.r. 1, planted some grain sorghum last week and also planted a demonstration plot for me. There are 11 varieties including the two planted by Marten. They are Texas 620, Texas 611, Martin RS 501, Martin RS 650, Combine 60, Plainsmen, Dekalb F 62A, Dekalb C 44A, Dekalb D 50A, and Dekalb E 50A. These plots are planted away from the buildings so birds will not cause too much damage to the sorghum. We hope that we can get some yield data as well as learn about cultivation practices from these sorghum fields. Feel free to visit them any time that you wish. The field is marked by a demonstration plot sign.

Treating field corn for borers pays if you treat at the right time. Winds and rain last week helped to decrease the corn borer population that had already hatched. The closer the stalk is to coming into tassel the higher the number of borers that live. On your taller corn you should now be watching for corn borer damage and know how to use the tassel ratio method of determining when to treat. If your plants show 75 per cent fresh leaf feeding and the height of the corn plant with leaves extended divided by the height of the tassel is between 30 and 50 it will pay you to treat. For example a 15 inch tassel divided by a 50 inch plant height times 100 will give you a tassel ratio of 30. Take the average of 5 to 10 plants to give you an average for the field. For ground application apply 3 quarts of 25 per cent DDT emulsion in 10 to 50 gallons of water or 12 pounds of 5 per cent clay granules per acre.

Virgil Long of Middletown brought in some Nimbewill or drop seed grass which is growing in his sod waterway. Nimbewill has a tough fibrous root system which makes a sod which is difficult to break up. It roots at the lower joints and spreads rapidly if not cultivated. It will not stand intensive cultivation and can be easily controlled with Dalapon or a treatment of Alacide.

It won't be long until the wheat harvest begins and it's not too late to apply lime, phosphate, and other fertilizer that was delayed because of wet weather or the work rush. You can apply fertilizer on small grain stubble after harvest, on pasture any time, on hay land after hay, on corn or soybeans if the crops are not too large. Limestone still pays more than any one single ingredient applied to Illinois soil. Don't be afraid to apply plenty.

Wool Dispute Odd Item In Hot Weather Season

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK — The visit here of Premier Nobusuke Kishi of Japan today points up an odd dispute for this hot weather season — wool.

There's a little international incident in wool. And it is part of the trade problem involving the United States and Japan which the premier took up with President Eisenhower and others in Washington. The premier tells on quibblers here he hopes a solution is being worked out.

Both the American woolen mill owner and the American consumer have stakes in this, since price tags on next year's clothing could be involved.

The Japanese claim to be a reasonably innocent bystander in the clash between American and British mills.

Between one-third and one-half of Japan's exports of wool fabrics comes to the United States. In the January to August shipping period last year these brought Japan $7,369,000. These were dollars the Japanese could use since her imports have been topping exports — the latest figures show the gap at 100 million dollars a month.

Wool fabrics are a comparative newcomer as a problem. The American and Japanese cotton textile industries clashed some time ago. Finally the Japanese said they would cut back their exports of cotton goods here.

A month ago President Eisenhower set a tariff quota on U.S. imports of woven wool cloths. This provides that if such imports go beyond 14 million pounds in 1957, at that point the tariff automatically rises from the present 25 per cent to 45 per cent. The 14 million pounds was chosen as representing five per cent of the average U. S. domestic output during 1954-1956.

While the British woolen mills are chiefly affected, officials of the Japan External Trade Recovery Organization here stress that Japanese fabrics easily could be the ones being too late in getting in under the line. Thus, the Japanese mills might find merchandise shipped here costing 20 per cent more if its date of arrival is later than that of similar fabrics shipped from Europe. Australia, nevertheless, reports that the Japanese are taking one fifth of its bumper crop this season.

DOG MARKER

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Smiley Pete won't be buried in the courthouse yard, but a marker will be erected at the main downtown intersection for him.

Smiley Pete, a lovable dog who was practically a community property, died last week. Since he was such a "celebrity" it was suggested he be buried in the courthouse yard.

But Judge Don E. Fowler ruled that out Tuesday saying it would not be proper to "dedicate a portion of the courthouse square as a burial plot."

However, a marker will be placed at Main and Limestone streets where Smiley Pete hung out during his 34-year life.

Actress Saved

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — A dramatic rescue saved actress Jeanne Crain and her family minutes before their disabled yacht would have crashed against a stone jetty.

The Coast Guard Tuesday reported that Miss Crain, her husband Paul Brinkman and their four children were aboard a 51-foot power cruiser which drifted helplessly for nearly three hours after developing engine trouble on a "second honeymoon voyage."

Brinkman and his wife patched up their marital troubles earlier this year. Both were seasick and exhausted and their oldest son, Robert, 12, was trying to control the boat when a passing ship took it in tow Monday night just off the Newport Beach Jetty.
