Baby Week Contest to Be Project of Retailers

The Retail Committee of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce announces a contest to emphasize and participate in National Baby Week.

The program for National Baby Week in the trading area served by Lincoln will make every individual eligible to participate in winning a $25 government savings bond. The Retail Committee makes this Bond available to readers of this newspaper by having every person who wishes to send in a coupon or postcard stating their guess as to the exact day, hour and minute when the first baby will be born during National Baby Week, which starts Sunday, April 27 at 12:00 midnight.

All persons who care to enter a coupon or postcard with their name and address, must mark the coupon or postcard and mail it to the Chamber of Commerce office so that it will arrive no later than noon Saturday, April 26, the day before National Baby Week begins.

The person naming the correct day, hour and minute of the arrival of the first baby at hospital in the city of L will be awarded the $25 bond by the Retailers. In of duplicate time guesses coupon or postcard bearing earliest postmark will be the winner.

by eliminating several parking spaces in the area.

Minder reported that there have been five traffic accidents at the corner since the first of the year and that poor vision caused by parked cars was the cause. Several aldermen disagreed as to the cause of the accidents.

A committee was appointed to meet with Pulaski street residents who have petitioned for curb and gutter. An estimate of the cost of the proposed project indicated that it was more than the city could handle except under special assessment.

Successful bids of Decatur Rock & Asphalt Co., Decatur and Lincoln Sand & Gravel Co. were approved by the Council for work on motor fuel tax maintained streets. Decatur Rock will furnish and spread 34,320 gallons of bituminous material at 14.3 cents a gallon. The Council passed a motion to request that the company also supply an additional 45,000 gallons of the material for other city street work at the same price.

Lincoln Sand will supply 715 tons of seal coat at $1.25 a ton, and 715 tons of seal coat delivered to city box spreaders at $1.95 a ton.

Results of Senate Vote

Republican Sen. Morris E. Mehlman of Rock Island won in the three-way 53rd District contest. Democratic Sen. James O. Monroe of Collinsville defeated Casmer Skubish of Granite City.

Marketing Talk By Sam Keys at Kiwanis Meeting

An interesting talk on grain marketing was provided for Lincoln Kiwanians at their Tuesday luncheon at Hotel Lincoln by Sam Keys. He was presented by Clair Smith, program chairman.

Grain marketing operations are based on knowledge and experience rather than on the laws of chance, the market man said. He pointed out this vital cog in the marketing system is uniquely one without any inventory.

Keys went into the intricacies of hedging operations and opined farmers could return themselves greater profits by taking advantage of the futures market. The speaker declared the code of the Chicago Board of Trade is rigid for its 422 members — providing facilities for their transactions. This Board, as such, does not affect prices, Keys said.

Kiwanians Thursday night will assist in the house-to-house canvass for the Salvation Army.

Stompanato Slayer Will Stay 10 Days

LOS ANGELES (U)—Lana Turner's daughter is described as homesick with 10 more days to wait in Juvenile Hall for a hearing at which attorneys will seek to free her from official supervision.

Her father, restaurateur Steve Crane, second of the movie queen's four husbands, visited 14-year-old Cheryl Crane Sunday at the hall.

"Sure, she's homesick," he told newsmen afterward. "She's counting the days just like anyone else."

Visited by Lana

Lana visited the tall, shy teenager Saturday. Both parents said they had no discussion with Cheryl of the verdict of a coroner's jury Friday that her stabbing April 4 of Lana's boy friend Johnny Stompanato, 32, was justifiable homicide.

Crane took his daughter a gift-wrapped three-pound box of candy which he said was for all the girls in her unit.

Cheryl's fate will be decided April 24 by Superior Judge Allen T. Lynch at a court hearing in Santa Monica.

Sure of Proof

Atty. Arthur Crowley, who represents the girl and her father said: "We will be fully prepared at the hearing to prove that there is no necessity to make Cheryl a ward of the Juvenile Court."

'Daddy Comes Back but His Little Girl Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I'd get well if daddy came back," said little Paula Ann Backover one day last December.

Daddy had disappeared about the time a $2,300 shortage was found in the accounts of the bowling alley where he worked.

But newspaper accounts of his daughter's serious illness caught up with Robert Backover, 28, in Los Angeles.

He wired home from Los Angeles Feb. 9: "Tell P. A. I'm coming."

Two days later Backover was tearfully reunited with his daughter.

Afterward he went to the nearby Hyattsville, Md., police headquarters to surrender for a grand larceny charge still pending.

The next few weeks were joyous ones for 6-year-old Paula Ann. And for her dad, too.

But Paula Ann didn't get well.

She lapsed into a coma Saturday and died of leukemia in a Washington hospital.

Backover collapsed and was placed under a doctor's care at his home.

8:30 p.m. to all members. Meat, drink, bread, and butter will be furnished. All attending are to take a dish of food to pass and table service.

International Representative, C. "Tiny" Groetke will be the guest speaker. All new members who have not taken their obligations are urged to attend.

Mary Molen, Lincoln high school senior, placed second in the state finals of the high school speech contest in the verse reading section at University of Illinois Saturday.

She was one of six contestants who survived first-round competition Friday. She was the only contestant from Lincoln.

Thornton Fractional nearly equalled the point totals of runner-up Evanston and third place finisher Pekin to take the 1958 state high school speech contest, the Associated Press reports.

Elgin won the debate section; Thornton and Pekin tied for second place; and four teams tied for fourth — Champaign, DuQuoin, Peoria Woodruff and Arlington Heights.

In the drama section, Evanston placed first; Joliet, second; Rock Island, third; Chapin, fourth; and Urbana, fifth.

Not to Give Money, Warns

The Salvation Army in Springfield has regular truck service in Lincoln for the pick-up of clothes donated to the agency here.

But the pick-up crew from Springfield is NOT authorized to accept either money or checks, according to Major Albert Legg, head officer of the Salvation Army here.

One each week, the social service truck calls here Thursday for the clothes pick-up. Once each three months, the truck calls door-to-door for clothes. At these home to home calls, no money is to be contributed, Major Legg said.

Rather, the major said, if residents have money or checks, they are asked to send them to the Salvation Army, 307 N. Kickapoo st., Lincoln, or to call that agency — 789 — and the contributions will be called for by local representatives.

Currently the Salvation Army is having its annual fund appeal.

Still Living in Fear of Touhy

CHICAGO in — Fear of Roger (The Terrible) Touhy still haunts John (Jake the Barber) Factor, the man Touhy was convicted of kidnaping 25 years ago.

"A man who has been tortured, kidnaped and treated as if he were not a human being is always afraid," Factor told the Chicago Tribune Sunday.

"I'm afraid and that's that. There's a scar put on you that is never erased until you die."

Bids For Freedom
Factor now is in the real estate business in Beverly Hills, Calif. He was interviewed while on his way to Springfield, Ill., to appear Wednesday before the Illinois Pardon and Parole Board when Touhy makes a fresh bid for his freedom.

Touhy originally was sentenced to 99 years after conviction on the kidnap charge. He escaped from prison in 1943, was recaptured and sentenced to 199 more years. Since then, the 99-year sentence has been commuted to 72 years and the 199-year term to three years. Unless the board approves his new application for a parole he faces 16 more months imprisonment.

Not Guilty, Claims

Touhy has always claimed he was not guilty of kidnaping Factor, that his imprisonment was illegal. Arguing from that premise, he says the additional 199 year sentence for the prison break should not have been imposed because he was wrongfully imprisoned in the beginning.

Factor said he would not oppose Touhy's immediate parole if Touhy tried to win it "with the truth. But they cannot release him because of this fantastic lie. And if Touhy has built himself up to this lie, wouldn't he be revengeful? If you tell a lie often enough you begin to believe it."

Reaction in Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market backed away from recent gains in good turnover early this afternoon. Leading issues lost fractions to around a point.

The mild reaction came after three days of emphatic advance. Most major sections were lower. Some resistance to the general trend was offered by selected aircrafts, utilities and building materials.

Trading was active at the opening as a string of good-sized blocks changed hands. Trading fell off and was fairly quiet by noon.

President Eisenhower's veto of the rivers and harbors bill was taken by some Wall Street observers as a sign of a stiffer line against pump-priming measures.

Steels, motors, chemicals, rails and oils were among the losing groups.

Salvation Army's Help Lauded by Police Chief

Cooperation of the Salvation Army with local law enforcement agencies is one of the reasons Lincoln Police Chief Earl Minder is working hard this week for the Salvation Army's annual fund drive.

Chief Minder is in charge of solicitation of all city employees, including police, firemen, city clerk's office workers, and personnel of the street department and sewage disposal plant.

"A lot of transients have been helped by the Salvation Army," Chief Minder says, and he recalls numerous incidents in which his department has called upon the Army for aid it could not receive from any other agency.

"Always Helped"

"The Army has always helped these people out," the police chief states. He explains that there is no agency of the city government which can provide gasoline, oil, room or meals for transients who become stranded in Lincoln.

"As long as the Salvation Army is operating, we know we have someplace for these people to go," Minder adds.

Another branch of the Salvation Army activity in which the police chief is particularly interested is its workshop for young people, which Minder credits with holding down juvenile delinquency.

"For these reasons, municipal employees and all residents of the city should give all they can to the fund drive this year," Chief Minder concludes.

V.F.W. Having County Sale

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post of Lincoln is conducting its annual magazine subscription campaign to raise money for purchase of portable sick room equipment to be added to the already established sick room equipment loan cabinet of the post, Chairman Lee Williams announced today.

The equipment is available for temporary use by all residents of Logan county without charge, except for transportation, Williams said.

As in past years only accredited representatives of the publishers, each bearing letters of authorization and identification, will call on residents to explain the plan in full detail. These letters will bear signatures of officers and members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. All representatives working on the campaign will be registered at the sheriff's office.

The plan is considered as a community service project and not as a request for donations. Donations will not be accepted by either the representatives working on the campaign or the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Everyone co-operating will receive full value in magazine subscription.

Through this same type plan in past years it has been possible to purchase hospital beds with mattresses, wheel chairs, invalid walkers, crutches and other sick room equipment.

In the jury's presence. Following a conference in the judge's chamber, Mrs. Lapsley was summoned as a court's witness.

The motion for a mistrial was made by the defense after Klink asked Mrs. Lapsley near the close of her testimony "Are you still fond of Eddie Franz?" Judge Bevan declared a recess, and when court resumed 25 minutes later, announced that the motion would be denied.

Mrs. Lapsley recounted events of the evening during which she accompanied Franz, and stated that the defendant drank six mixed drinks, but was not intoxicated.

Head for Hilltop

Examined by Klink, Mrs. Lapsley said Franz picked her up at her house about 8:30 or 8:45 p.m. on July 27, 1935, and they started for Springfield. However, she continued, they turned around on route 66 and headed for the Hilltop Tavern on route 121 toward Peoria.

"Some fellows we knew were playing there," she explained, and she and Franz had a drink at a table with their wives. Franz ordered "Seven Crown and water" throughout the night, Mrs. Lapsley said.

Two more drinks were ordered at the bar, the witness said, and the couple then went to the 121 Club "down the road toward Peoria," where she said they had another drink and danced.

After leaving the 121, Mrs. Lapsley testified, they returned to the Hillside, had one more drink, and went on to the Prairie Trails on route 136 west of San Jose. Here, she stated, they had one drink at the bar, ordered another, but left before drinking the second order.

"Small, Dim Light"

Mrs. Lapsley asserted that she did not see any lights along the highway at the Illinois Central railroad crossing except "a very small, dim light." She heard someone yell, the witness said, and felt the car swerve to the left before hearing a thump.

These facts and other statistical data were made public today by the American Cancer Society. Krotz Cited for Farm-City Assistance Plan

Chamber of Commerce office for those wishing to volunteer.

Tuesday, May 28, 1937, the first day of Farm Help Week, found several enthusiastic city folks on tractors doing an admirable piece of plowing on nearby farms.

Among those who worked were Mayor Ed Spellman, Police Chief Earl Minder, Deputy Sheriff Joe Scanlon, Lincoln Insurance men, attorneys, businessmen and laborers.

Many Hours Given
Farmers in Logan county were helped to the tune of 1,476 man hours. There were 41 who donated their work, and they averaged three days each. Some worked all week, and most of the volunteers averaged 12 hours a day.

By June 7 farmers were "over the hump" with their spring work, and the program had caught on in at least 81 other communities throughout the midwest, where farm help programs were patterned after Logan county's successful venture.

Krotz, who set the machinery in motion that again demonstrated interdependency of farm and city, is familiar with both ways of life. One of Lincoln's successful businessmen, he is also a one-time farmer.

A native of Germany, Krotz was born Nov. 15, 1901, and came to Lincoln with his parents in 1902, at the age of 10 months. He has been a local resident since.

His first experience in the grocery business was with his father, who had been a coal miner. They opened a small store on North Kickapoo st. in 1919.

Returned in 1933
In 1933, Krotz moved to a farm north of town where he remained until returning to Lincoln in 1935.

Krotz is presently a member of the board of directors of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of St. Mary's church, Knights of Columbus, Rotary club, Eagles lodge and Logan County Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. Krotz (the former Doris Haynes of Lincoln) reside at 115 Southgate. In addition to their son, Ed, who is associated with his father, they are parents of two daughters, Mrs. Norma Dowdle of Lincoln and Miss Frances Krotz, a student at Purdue university, Lafayette, Ind.

Observations covering half a century of Lincoln's progress have enabled Krotz to keep pace with a changing population and expanding commercial area. His business has grown from a neighborhood grocery store to a complete, departmentalized supermarket without losing any of its friendly home-town atmosphere. The "Man of the Month" has consistently supported sponsors of worthwhile community projects, and has worked closely with the county Farm Bureau and extension service on agricultural programs.

Personal Letter From San Jose

Dear Friends:
Can't remember when I've seen a better crop of dandelions. The children have been picking bouquets of violets and dandelions for a week now. Makes me think back quite a few years. Recall the daisy chains we made with white daisies that grew in many lawns and along roadsides? The Garden Club has asked all the members, and anyone else who care to, to plant red and white petunias this year as a tribute to our Centennial. Our school colors are red and white.

The Youth choir looked nice at Salem church Sunday. They sang the fourth Sunday in each month. Too bad there were only two boys in the group. Singing in the choir Sunday were Georgia Carpenter, Nancy Smith, Mary Kay Wheat, Jeanne Wheat, Bob Betzelberger, Richard Sublett, Carol Ann Bruns, Janis Zimmerman, Judy Betzelberger, and Charlotte Bartman. I noticed most of the men are wearing those black Centennial string ties. Guess they go better with the beards.

Becomes Engaged
Mary Lou Fairis was displaying a beautiful diamond engagement ring she had just received from Jim Hoeft. Mary Lou graduated from San Jose high school last year and has been employed in Springfield. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fairis.

I attended the Auction sale of the household goods of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers, a lot better known as Ella and Ed. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors for so many years and was such a help to me when I first joined. Ed was custodian of the high school for 25 years. The year he resigned the seniors dedicated their year book, "The Devil's Diary" to him. That was the Class of 1955. I don't think I'll ever know two nicer people.

The annual Ladies Day at Lincoln Bible Institute was Tuesday of last week. Attending from San Jose were Mrs. Robert Well, Mrs. Darold Lynn and daughter Debbie, Mrs. Melvin Embree, Mrs. Ike Boyer, Mrs. Nettie Synder, Mrs. Verna Eigenbrod. Most of the ladies attending wore their Centennial dresses to publicize the coming events in July honoring our village's 100th birthday.

Baby Fox for Pet
We have a new pet at our house. Dave found a little baby fox while he was working, guess it had got lost from its family or deserted, anyway, we have it in a box and it seems to be doing all right. Harold judged it to be about 3 weeks old.

Sunday was Youth Day at the First Methodist church too. Louise is Choir leader there and she said there were 14 there in choir. They seem to have a need for boys in their choir, too. Wonder why there aren't more boys who like to sing?

Three San Jose high school girls were badly shaken up last week when they went to Decatur to participate in the State Music Contest at Millikin in Decatur. Ann McCrea, Sherry Classen and Judy Betzelberger, and Judy's mother Mrs. Logan Betzelberger were riding in a car that figured in a two-car collision just as they arrived in Decatur. Miss McCrea was driving the car. All four were taken to the hospital but the girls were released. Mrs. Betzelberger remained the rest of the day and had her nose, which had been broken in the accident, treated. The girls went on to their contest and each received a first in her performance. Logan Betzelberger came after the girls and Mrs. Betzelberger was released from the hospital to accompany them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hitchcock of Emden are parents of a girl, born April 20 in Hopedale Hospital. Mrs. Hitchcock is the former Phyllis Nelson. The little girl has been named Karen Marie. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Nelson and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hitchcock of Emden. Karen Marie also has great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Nelson, who are neighbors of mine, and Jim Phillips all of San Jose.

Back From Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hilgen-dorf returned recently from a three-day trip to Carbondale and Mt. Vernon. They were Saturday and Sunday overnight guests of their son and his wife and on the return trip Monday, Mr. Hilgen-dorf attended a Road Commissioner's meeting in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elme Harris entertained guests recently in honor of their 30th wedding anniversary which was April 12 and also Mrs. Harris' birthday. Their guests were Mrs. Dena Harris, Emden, Mr. and Mrs. Jagges Harris and sons, Don and Steve, Ottawa, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harris, Urbana and Miss Marilyn Harris of San Jose. James Murphy of St. David, and Bruce Gordon of New Holland, were afternoon callers. Mrs. Dena Harris remained for a visit with the Harris'.

Miss Lucy Adolph has been ill at her home and Mrs. Maurice Wainwright has been helping out at the dress shop for the past week. Another substitute was Johnny Marshall who has been working at the grade school as janitor since "Bluff" Sellers has been ill.

Several San Jose people went to Peoria Saturday to take civil service examinations for the job of postmaster which has been temporarily filled by Arthur Mulford since last November after the retirement of Mrs. Vannie Smith. Will let you know the results as soon as I hear them.

This is all for now,
Mrs. Harold Wheat
