Lincoln Elks Will Support Cerebral Palsy State Plan

Lincoln lodge #14, B.P.O. Elks, will push the new cerebral palsy program of the Illinois Elks Assn., it was decided Wednesday night.

Responsibility for participation is being taken by the Past Exalted Rulers club. Its members will distribute coin containers among members, then gather them in.

The program was explained by Albert W. Arnold, secretary of the Illinois Elks Assn., at the P.E.R.s club dinner at Leonard's Cafe. He announced the palsy mobile unit will be in Lincoln Feb. 19. Each member of the lodge here will be asked to contribute a penny a day to help finance the costly program.

Dr. John W. Maher was elected president of the club and Walter Spatz secretary and treasurer. Lodge officers and trustees also met with the P.E.R.s for the dinner. The club will furnish a trophy to go to the winner of one of the tournaments of the Elks Country Club annually. Wilbur E. Layman presided for the business meeting.

Festival in June

Announcement was made the annual Elks Festival will be the last week in June, just preceding the July Fourth double holiday. Jack Tumser will be 1939 Festival chairman. It is through this project the Elks have been able to finance their program for crippled children — a program that has been going on for 30 years.

At the lodge meeting a team of past exalted rulers presented the initiation ritual for a class of six candidates. Serving the stations were Harold G. Perry, Henry Fisher, Leroy Allison, Ken Goodrich, Dr. James A. Cowan, Layman and Spatz.

Memorial services were conducted for William K. Maxwell and Lorenzo T. McCoy.

Tracked Down For Car Theft

Deputy sheriffs from Logan and DeWitt counties and state police from two districts tracked Merle Powless, 26, Clinton, through four miles of timber and cornfields near Hallsville before capturing him at 4:40 a.m. today.

Powless is accused of stealing a car belonging to Mrs. John Darlington of Lincoln. He is being held in county jail.

The Darlington car was abandoned in a ditch near Beason, it was reported, and a passing motorist gave Powless a ride to Hallsville. Police trailed him to that point and then had to follow on foot to capture him.

He only recently was released from the prison at Pontiac after serving an armed robbery sentence, it was reported.

Logan Highway Contracts Let

Three out of state firms and one Illinois firm were awarded contracts for maintenance materials for the Logan County Highway Department for the year by the state and road and bridge committee and the state and townships committee, according to G. Conrad Miller, county superintendent of highways.

The Illinois firm, the C. T. and M. Industrial Suppliers of Elgin, were awarded a contract for 3,000 machine bolts for $260, 100 pounds of washers for $24.32; 100 pounds of 10D wire nails at $17, and 100 pounds of 30D wire nails at $18.50.

Other companies awarded contracts include the All Metal Highway Products Co. of Liguer, Ind. for 1,078 lineal feet of pipe culverts and arches for a bid of $3,729.96.

American Creosote Corporation of Louisville, Ky., received contracts to supply 21,000 feet of structural timber at $175 per thousand feet, 100 treated sign posts for $187, and 50 guard rail

No Signs of Strike Ending

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — With still no sign of a settlement, negotiators were called back to the bargaining table today to thrash out the many issues involved in the four month Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. strike.

Mediator Robert Donnanho repeated Thursday what has been an almost unchanging theme of the marathon negotiations:

"Both sides are still far apart and it is slow resolving the problem."

Thursday's talks continued on a plant-by-plant basis with representatives of the company and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union reviewing once again the local issues that bar settlement of the national strike.

The dispute has idled 13,000 at nine plants in seven cities. In addition, about 35,000 Chrysler Corp. and American Motor Co. employees have been laid off and assembly lines halted by a shortage of automotive glass.

Three Farmers on Visit To Town Killed by Train

HUTSONVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Three farmers on a visit to town were killed by a New York Central freight train Thursday in a collision at a crossing in Hutsonville. The bodies of Bryan Boyd, 60, and Everett Guyer, 74, were hurled from a pick-up truck in which they were riding with Ernest Carroll, 55.

Carroll, whose body remained in the truck, was driving. The men lived on neighboring Crawford County farms near Hutsonville, a town of 700 seven miles north of Robinson.

The crash occurred at a crossing marked by a warning bell. The men had visited a stockyard and were traveling to the business district on the other side of the tracks. The northbound freight train came to a stop about a mile beyond the crossing. The truck was knocked a short distance from the crossing.

GIL DODD:

Likens Athletic Success With Life of Christian

Gil Dodd, head track coach at Wheaton, Ill. college, was well received by young people from Lincoln and surrounding communities when he appeared under the sponsorship of the Lincoln Ministerial Association Thursday evening at First Methodist church.

The speaker captivated his audience by likening those who excel in athletics to those who succeed in the Christian life. It was the opinion of the speaker that the most important factor in the life of a good athlete is a coach who can inspire, build confidence and point the way.

He related that the night he broke the world's record for the indoor mile, his coach had told him just before the race he would do it. Dodd commented that in that race he forgot his fatigue in tiring moments in the determination to be the runner his coach wanted him to be. In the race of life, the speaker stated Jesus Christ should be the guiding factor in every life, and young people should seek to always be what He would want man" by refusing to compromise with factors which were contrary to his Christian convictions. Among other incidents related, he commented on his refusal to run in big time competition when his races were set on Sunday, a day he always kept for devotion to God. In respect for his convictions Dodd stated his races four years in a row were moved to Saturday.

In reviewing the new records being set in track and field meets year after year, Dodd expressed the feeling that more is taking place in this area of the sports world than in any other one. This he explained was primarily due to better tracks, better coaching and harder work on the part of the athletes in their training program.

David Hargrove, youth minister at Lincoln Christian church, presided during the service and introduced all participating personnel. A girls trio and a trumpet trio from Lincoln Bible Institute entertained.

At the close of the service, a fellowship was enjoyed in the

Unemployment Climbs in U.S. Again, Count Shows

WASHINGTON (U) — Unemployment is climbing back close to the five-million mark, economists reported today. They said a figure approaching that mark may be shown in the government's January count, due out Tuesday.

Joblessness normally rises in the winter months because of the weather's effect on construction, farm and other outdoor activities. The five-million mark has not been exceeded since last year ago. In December the total was 4,108,000 or 734,000 more than the 3,374,000 in December 1927.

The figure for January 1933 was 4,494,000, a jump of well over a million from December.

If the January 1933 idle total increases by anything like the million or so normally registered in that month, the total will be close to or over five million—and well over the figure for a year

5,120,000.

Running Ahead
But in recent months job idleness has been running a little

Mrs. Pattie Sims Snider Succumbs

Mrs. Pattie Sims Snider, 92, widow of the Rev. W. C. Snider, pastor of First Presbyterian church of Lincoln (1892 to 1899) died at her home in Santa Barbara, Calif., Feb. 4.

The ashes will be returned to Lincoln and will be received by Holland and Barry Funeral Home.

She was born in Lincoln Nov. 3, 1866, the youngest of five children of Dr. Joseph B. Sims and Anna Owsley Sims. Dr. Sims, one of the founders of Logan County Medical society, died in 1888. Mrs. Sims died in Lincoln in 1924 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ella W. Brainerd who died in 1928.

Pattie Sims was married to William C. Snider in Lincoln in 1886. Both attended Lincoln college. The Rev. Snider died in Santa Barbara in 1941 and is buried in Lincoln.

Mrs. Snider is survived by three children, Brainerd C. Snider of Ardmore, Okla., and Nellie S. Wyatt and Ann Louise Snider of Santa Barbara; four grandchildren, Steve Snider of New York; James O. Snider of Kansas City, Mo.; Clinton Eugene Wyatt of Riverside, Calif., and Marian Greenwell Richland of Washington.

There are several great grandchildren.

The figures indicate that while business has improved substantially from its recession depths, the job picture still is gloomy.

This in itself is not too surprising. Employers normally don't increase their work force very fast in a recovery period. They cautiously increase working hours of workers already employed, working them even overtime hours at premium rates rather than hire new workers.

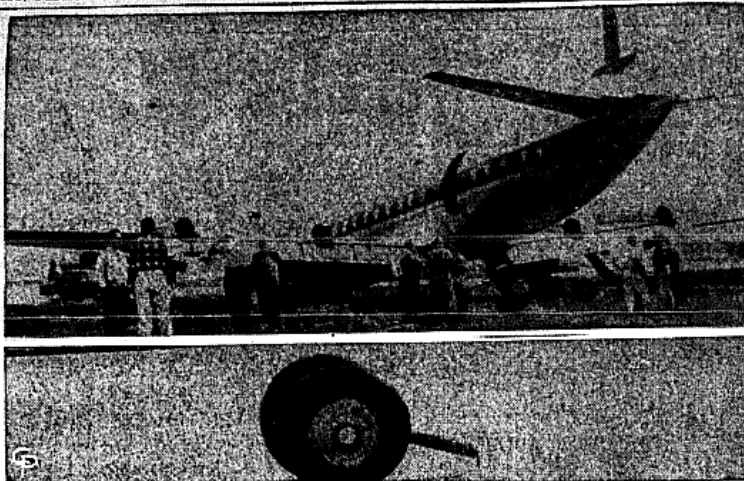

Can't Find Jobs
As of now about one out of every 17 able-bodied workers wanting a job can't find one. Similarly, one of eight single workers is unemployed. Among married workers the idle ratio is one out of 20.

Worker earnings, like prices are at record levels. This means that those workers that have jobs are doing all right, many of them enjoying big chunks of extra, premium overtime pay.

ATTEND CONVENTION

HARTSBURG — Byron Jansen, manager of the Hartsburg Grain, Coal and Lumber Co., and several members of the board of directors and others went to Peoria Tuesday to attend the banquet and program at 6:30 p.m. of the 56th annual convention of the Farmers Grain Dealers Assn. Tuesday and Wednesday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jansen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Klockenga, Mr. and Mrs. George Ruben and Mrs. Bertha Utech San Jose.

ELECTRA LOSES NOSE WHEEL—An Eastern Airline Electra Prop jet airliner of the type which crashed into New York's East River last week killing 65, veered off the runway while making a practice landing at Miami, Fla., International Airport. The nose wheel broke off causing the plane to nose down. Only six crewmen were aboard and none were injured.

Victim's Body Mistakenly Identified

CHICAGO (U) — Relatives of Mrs. Dolores Hunt, 23, who was killed in last Tuesday's American Airlines plane crash in New York City, today arranged for her funeral after they claimed the body. The body had been mistakenly identified and sent here for burial.

The woman was originally identified last Wednesday in New York as Elizabeth Ann Kalnicky, 26, of Chicago. However, the error in identification was discovered Saturday night, when Mrs. Kalnicky's mother, Mrs. Leo Kalnicky, fainted at seeing the wrong body in her daughter's coffin.

Both Mrs. Hunt, who also lived in Chicago, and Mrs. Kalnicky were among the 65 persons killed in the plane crash. There were 8 survivors.

Mrs. Hunt's mother, Mrs. Alice Kozilek, and other relatives Sunday identified the dead woman as Mrs. Hunt. John Zidek, funeral director, said he had received confirmation that a finger print check also confirmed that the body was Mrs. Hunt's.

The FBI had obtained Mrs.

Hunt's fingerprints when she gave birth to a son last year at Westover Air Force Base, Mass. Her husband, John, 25, and the boy, Michael, 11 months, also were killed in the crash.

Injuries Fatal To Mrs. Butler

Mrs. Tina Butler, 56 of Lincoln died Saturday night of injuries sustained in a two car accident on state route 127 north of Pinckneyville. The accident was Friday night.

State police stated that Mrs. Butler was backing her car out of a drive way when her auto was struck by a car driven by Hugh W. White, 30, of Oakdale. She was thrown from the car by the impact. Mr. White escaped injury.

Lodge is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., and the district meeting for 8. Entertainment will be given after the district session and a square dance called by Joe Maddox of Beason will be a feature.

Larry Montgomery of Mt. Pulaski, district president, announces that the social part of the evening will be open to the public and anyone interested in the dance may attend.

Members of the various lodges have been asked to take sandwiches and a dish to pass; the host lodge will provide the beverage.

spokesman said the Katutas work and train with U.S. troops and draw the same assignments as regular personnel.

Home Near San Jose Destroyed

A stove and a dryer was all that was saved from the burning home of Mr. and Mrs. James Belt Sunday at 1:30 p.m. a mile southwest of San Jose.

The family was home when the fire was discovered but could not reach the fire department immediately because of lack of a telephone Mrs. Belt drove to San Jose with her daughter, Mary Jane, to summon the fire department.

The fire was discovered in an spread to destroy the house and its contents. Loss was estimated at $7,000 and is not covered by insurance, it was reported.

Defective wiring was listed as the cause by Fire Chief Stanley Woll. The farm is owned by A. D. Adams and is being farmed by Dave Moehrling.

A shower is being planned for the Belt family by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woll. The Belt family stayed with the Wolls Sunday night.

Mrs. Carnahan Funeral Tuesday

Mrs. Edna Pauline Carnahan, 58, of Hartsburg died at 7:10 a.m. Sunday in Abraham Lincoln Memorial hospital where she had been a patient since Dec. 12. Friends may call at Holland and Barry Funeral home Monday afternoon and evening.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday from the funeral home with the Rev. Robert C. Sharp officiating. Burial will be in Union cemetery.

The deceased was born at Hartsburg Aug. 8, 1900, the daughter of John and Viola Ritchie Barley. She was married to Harry Carnahan July 3, 1922, in Chicago and he survives as do her mother, two sisters, Mrs. Frank Conrad of Hartsburg; and Mrs. Joseph Fisher of Atlanta, and two brothers, Clyde Barley of Farmington and Paul of Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Carnahan was a member of Hartsburg Methodist church.

Stocks Take Heavy Losses

NEW YORK — Waves of selling shook the stock market to a severe loss early this afternoon. Industrials were hit hard, some dropping more than 10 points. Steels, motors, chemicals, oils, rubbers, tobaccos, drugs and electrical equipments gave ground in a general retreat. American Telephone was down about 3 at one phase but reduced its loss to 2 points or so. Du Pont dropped more than 3 and high priced International Business Machines about 5. Youngstown Sheet & Tube dropped about 2. Losses of more than a point were taken by U. S. Steel and Jones & Laughlin. Sharon Steel fell more than 3 and Pittsburgh Steel a point or so. Texas Co. and Amerasia were down about 2 apiece and Gulf Oil more than that. Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Royal Dutch dropped about a point each. General Motors was off about a point. American Motors also lost around a point. Kroger dipped fractionally.

Scheetz Named In Laenna Twp.

John L. Scheetz will be the Republican candidate for Laenna township supervisor, according to results posted in a township caucus Saturday. He is the incumbent.

Others nominated to key posts include Ted Phillips, road commissioner, and Everett Purcell, justice of the peace.

In a Democratic caucus Monday night in Laenna, no candidate was nominated for the post of supervisor. Leo Letterville was nominated road commissioner.

Herman Letterville for justice of the peace, and Leland Williams, a non-partisan candidate was nominated for cemetery trustee.

Latham Man Injured When Struck by Car

Merlin Centers, 49, Latham, suffered compound fractures of the right leg, a fractured pelvis and cuts and bruises at 6:30 p.m. Monday when he was struck on route 121 two miles east of Mt. Pulaski by a car driven by Donald Lee Lampotice, 26, Decatur.

Centers was taken to Lincoln Memorial Hospital in a Schall his car to get help when the car skidded into a water-filled ditch.

Lorraine Ramsey, 37, Jackson, Ill., stopped her car to see if she could help, it was reported and Centers was hit by the third car as he was walking toward the stopped car.

State Trooper Robert Werner said it was foggy and raining at the time of the accident.

Virginia Man Hurt
At 2:15 p.m. Monday Frank Rayford, 52, Arlington, Va., suffered cuts on the head and a back injury when his car ran into the rear of a state police patrol car on route 66 on the north side of Lincoln. He was taken to St. Clara's for treatment.

State Troopers Gene Riley and Maurice Akers reported they had stopped to assist a woman whose car had a mechanical failure.

After the faulty car had been picked up by a wrecker the officers said they started to leave the scene, and their car was struck in the rear. Neither was hurt. Rayford was cited for driving too fast for conditions.

Monday night an unidentified driver's car went into a ditch near Bell Station on route 121 and water in the ditch came up to the seats. The car was abandoned.

Early today on route 66 near Broadwell a tank truck filled with cooking oil jack-knifed, turned over and landed in the ditch between the two lanes. No injuries were reported.

Plan March Safety Meet

High point of a safety seminar sponsored by the local chapter of Zonta in the Lincoln city council chambers Monday evening was a film, "Alias the Killer", produced by the Illinois State Traffic Commission.

The meeting was attended by representatives of Zonta, the Boy Scouts, Logan County Rural Youth, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Moose lodge, the sheriff's office, City police, the Armvets, and Mayor Ed Spellman.

Chairman Jane Landauer, Zonta spokesman for the safety seminar, said one organization isn't "big enough" to do the job alone. Zonta has 24 members.

Armets present at the meeting suggested local service clubs share the safety program project by project, and a general consensus of opinion was to call another meeting. Tentative date for the next seminar on safety is March 9.

Chief Earl Minder pledged 100 per cent co-operation of city police in the program. Zonta will invite a guest speaker to the next meeting.

In seasons when they are not harvesting, farmers in Norway and Sweden the sheaves of grain on high poles to feed migratory birds — strictly a humane custom.

Taking School Safety Steps

Fire safety recommendations for some of Lincoln's older elementary schools are being followed out but others will have to wait until there is no school, the board of education at its Monday night meeting decided. So an extension of time will be asked of the state fire marshal's office. Whether it is granted is conjectural. Supt. Harry F. Augspurger told the Courier Tuesday.

More fire extinguishers are being installed in the schools as an insurance step against conflagration. It is planned to install fire doors and a fire escape at the back of Central school. Recommended room exits are to be cut at the Jefferson school.

At neither Central nor Jefferson, however, is it believed all the work can be done while school is in session. That is why the board is asking for a longer time in which to comply with the recommendations.

Directors met Monday night with architects for a discussion of plans for the old high school. Voters have approved its purchase and remodeling into a junior high school.

Only routine matters came before the high school board of education at its regular meeting.

Flames Hit In Downtown

BENNINGTON, Vt. — The only movie house in Bennington and several businesses and offices were destroyed by fire early today.

Lost to the flames were the General Stark Theater, the offices of the state's attorney, and the federal Internal Revenue Service, Joy's department store, a toy shop, a sandwich shop, a flower shop and the Bennington

All were in one big three-story brick building on Main street. Damage was estimated unofficially at $750,000.

The roof of the theatre and all the floors of the building collapsed. No one was hurt.

The blaze raged out of control for more than three hours as firemen handicapped by freezing rain, sought to keep it from spreading.

Bennington is in the southwest corner of Vermont not far from the New York state and Massachusetts borders.

List Leaders, Workers For Mothers March

Lincoln mothers leave off their work-a-day tasks Tuesday (this) evening to conduct the Mothers March for Logan County March of Dimes. Their chairman is Mrs. Kenneth Zimmerman, who announces the following chairmen and workers by school districts—

Central — Mrs. Albert Siegel, chairman; Mrs. Robert Field, Mrs. Roy Yeater, Mrs. H. R. R.

Mrs. Leon H. Appel and Mrs. John Barry.

Washington - Monroe — Mrs. Robert Thornton, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Colby, Mrs. Melvin Chait, Mrs. Joe Scanlon, Mrs. William Keys, Mrs. Jack Harrison, Mrs. Duane Kretzinger, Mrs. Frank Metalko, Mrs. Richard Harbert and Mrs. William Schmidt.

Trio Missing In Air Crash

SEOUL — Three crewmen are missing from a U. S. Air Force Twin Jet reconnaissance bomber which crashed in Mud Flats near Kunsan Air Base Monday.

Four others, including an Illinois man, were injured after bailing out of the plane on a training flight from Yokota Base in Japan to Kunsan. The aircraft ran low on fuel on a flight from Yokota base in Japan and came within 100 feet of the Kunsan runway.

The plane wreckage was visible in the Mud Flats today. It was not yet known whether the missing men were inside the wreckage, dead or wounded.

Second Lt. Leon S. Kirk, 23, of Sullivan, Ill., was taken to Kunsan Base Hospital. He was reported suffering from shock, minor contusions and abrasions.

Former Resident Dies in Seattle

Word has been received here of the Feb. 3 death of Martin Marquard of Seattle, Wash., formerly of Lincoln. He was 69 years old and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Marquard.

He married Hattie Sandel and she died Feb. 24, 1950. The couple resided in Yakima, Wash., when they first went to that state. Besides a son, Martin Jr., he leaves two grandsons, two brothers, F. H. Marquard of Girard and R. J. Marquard of Versailles; and a sister, Mrs. Leona Werth of Lincoln.

Burial was Saturday in Yakima.

Campaigns to Save Bald Eagles

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. — Not many men would worry themselves baldheaded over bald eagles, not even Elton Fawks.

But he hopes to do something to save the disappearing bird.

Fawks, who has been concerned about the eagle's fate some time, is enlisting the aid of three national organizations to persuade Congress to provide funds for a concerted effort to preserve the majestic bird before it is too late.

Fawks, a Kiwanis district governor, said a resolution in behalf of the bald eagle will be presented at the Kiwanis convention in Dallas in June. The Izaak Walton League and the Audubon Society also are interested in seeing that the eagle does not become extinct.

Protected by Law

Eagles now are protected by federal law from hunters, and Fawks doesn't know why they are disappearing. Up until a few years ago about 75 eagles wintered in the Quad-City vicinity. Now Fawks is hard put to find a dozen.

Fawks lives on Campbell's Island, in the Mississippi River near East Moline. Eagles for years have wintered along the Mississippi, and Fawks has studied their habits closely.

Pay Homage To Lincoln

WASHINGTON — The nation he reunited is paying reverent tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln 150 years after his birth.

President Eisenhower, who has proclaimed 1959 as Lincoln sesquicentennial Year, will join about 1,000 others at a memorial banquet Wednesday night, the eve of Lincoln's birthday.

On the anniversary itself Congress will hold a joint session to hear an address by Carl Sandburg, a leading biographer of the Great Emancipator, and a reading of the Gettysburg Address by actor Fredric March.

Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin will address an anniversary dinner in Lincoln's home town, Springfield, Ill.

About 20 foreign envoys will travel from Washington to attend.

ra. Sallie Powell, 115 years old, listens as son reads from the Bible in Oak Forest east, Ill. Mrs. Powell is blind. "I'm living," she said on her 115th birthday, Oct. 10.

Mrs. Silvernail Funeral Friday

MASON CITY — Mrs. Minnie Silvernail, 76, died Wednesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ray Graham, with whom she lived in Springfield.

Her funeral will be at 2 p.m. Friday at the Henderson Jennings Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ross Case officiating. Burial will be in Mason City cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Thursday.

She was born July 14, 1882, in Oldenburg, Germany, a daughter of Richard and Catherine Knollenberg Henefeldt.

Surviving are the daughter, two sons, Nelson and John Quick, Springfield; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Korfhage, New Holland; Mrs. Mary Bowersock, Mason City; Mrs. August Schmidt, Hendricks, Ia.; a brother, Herman Lincoln; and two grandsons.

She was a member of the Mason City Christian church.

Report on What Lincoln Was Doing Century Ago

By JAMES T. HICKEY
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Although Abraham Lincoln was defeated for the second time for a seat in the U. S. Senate following his debates with Douglas and the campaign of 1858, a more important result of the campaign was that Lincoln became a national figure. This can be seen best by following Lincoln through his activities of a century ago.

Before 1859 Lincoln had spoken outside Illinois only twice, but during that year he delivered speeches in cities in six other states: Columbus, Dayton, Hamilton and Cincinnati, Ohio; Indianapolis, Indiana; St. Joseph, Missouri; Milwaukee, Beloit and Janesville, Wisconsin; Council Bluffs, Ia.; and Leavenworth, Elwood, Troy, Doniphan and Atchison, Kansas.

"No" To Boston

He was also invited to a festival in Boston honoring the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, but he turned down the invitation, not without pointing out that the "Jefferson party was formed upon their supposed superior devotion to the personal rights of men, holding the rights of property to be secondary only" while the "democracy of today (1859) hold the liberty of one man to be absolutely nothing, when in conflict with another man's right of property." Lincoln's reply was given wide circulation in the Republican press.

His greater prominence in the Republican Party is shown at his Schuyler Colfax of Indiana, and Chase and Galloway in Ohio. All these letters and speeches show that Lincoln's political influence was no longer limited to Illinois.

It is interesting to follow the beginning of the movement during the year 1859 that culminated in Lincoln's presidential nomination and to note his reaction to it. April 16, Lincoln wrote Thomas J. Pickett, editor of the Rock Island Register, "I must, in candor say I do not think myself fit for the Presidency." He repeated the same thing to Samuel Galloway of Ohio in July, but in December he furnished Jesse Fell biographical material, certainly the act of a candidate.

Had German Paper

In May Lincoln purchased a press and German type and made a contract with Theodore Camillus to publish in Springfield a German language newspaper, Illinois Staats-Anzeiger, to support the Republican Party until after the presidential election of 1860.

During the year Lincoln made four trips to Chicago. On the first trip, March 1, he made a speech at a Republican rally on the night of the Chicago municipal election.

Lincoln also made two attempts at becoming a lecturer, then a popular occupation, when he gave his talk on "Discoveries and Inventions" at Jacksonville on Feb. 11, at Decatur a few days later and at Springfield Feb. 21. During all of this year Lincoln continued his usual practice of law in the Federal and Illinois Supreme Courts and attended parts of the spring and fall terms of the Eighth Circuit Courts.

Solons See Missile 'Go'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — An intercontinental Snark guided missile shot skyward today before an audience of space program probing congressmen.

Fifteen members of the House Astronautics and Science Committee were on hand to watch a military crew fire the sleek Northrop weapon at dawn.

The launching was part of the training phase for the Strategic Air Command's 558th Guided Missile Squadron. The 558th is expected to become the first operational Snark unit when it is assigned to a Presque Isle, Maine, base in several months.

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La.) and his committee had ying-side seats as the 6,000-mile Snark blazed off.

The 63-foot Snark, capable of carrying a nuclear warhead, was designed to cover the long-range gap until more powerful ballistic missiles are ready.

The Snark has a comparatively slow speed of about 600 m.p.h. Northrop says it gets extreme accuracy from a self-contained guidance system.

Wm. R. Wilson Rites Saturday

William Roscoe Wilson of 107 N. Union st., died at 12:35 p.m. Wednesday in Abraham Lincoln Memorial hospital. He was a retired farmer.

Chicago, Philadelphia in Fore as Convention Sites

WASHINGTON — Choice of a site for the 1960 Republican national convention appeared today to have narrowed down to Chicago or Philadelphia.

That is the speculation of some national committee officials, who say a late July or early August convention is a good bet. Some other sources, while agreeing Chicago and Philadelphia now hold the lead, say the choice is still open. No decision is expected before April.

Resistance Predicted Meanwhile, Democratic committee officials predict the full committee at its meeting here Feb. 27 will resist Chicago and Philadelphia protests and uphold a site committee's selection of Los Angeles for the Democratic convention. The Democrats have fixed July 11 as their convention starting date.

Republicans who recently received convention city bids from a dozen cities deferred a recommendation until they could visit some sites and get proposals in writing. The full committee will meet in April to act on a site recommendation.

Caucus Results

Reports on several township caucuses were turned in today. Elkhardt Township Republicans nominated Barry Johnson as their candidate for road commissioner and Democrats in the same township named Enos G. Odell as their candidate for the same post.

Huribut Township Democrats named Floyd "Dutch" Hanner as candidate for supervisor and Everett G. Miller as candidate for road commissioner.

Republicans in Huribut Township named S. L. Bair as supervisor candidate and Donald Wright as candidate for road commissioner.

Earp Got His Name From Abe

JOPLIN, Mo. — There weren't many men around anymore who can claim, like George Earp, that their names were chosen by Abraham Lincoln.

George, now a healthy and alert 84 years old, is a first cousin of famed frontier Marshal Wyatt Earp and once was a deputy under Wyatt.

George told reporter Tom Osterloh of the Joplin Globe Wednesday how he got his name from the 16th president of the United States.

Met in Kentucky George Earp's father, the Rev. John Douglas Earp, first met Lincoln in Kentucky where both were employed splitting rails. They became good friends and later moved to Illinois at the same time.

The Rev. Mr. Earp then moved to Lamar, Mo., and became a circuit preacher for the Southern Methodist Church. Lincoln was president when Earp was imprisoned on charges he supported the Confederacy. The President ordered him released.

Pastors Jailed Later, a group of ministers were jailed on similar charges and the Rev. Mr. Earp went to Washington to seek Lincoln's aid in freeing them.

Earp's wife had just given birth to their ninth child, a boy, on Dec. 13, 1864.

"Our new son has not yet been named," Earp told the President. "Would you select a name for him?"

Lincoln's reply: "Name him George Washington."

WINTER COAT

This conversation took place Monday between Lincoln Isham of nearby Dorset, great-grandson of President Lincoln, and Probate Judge Margaret Doherty of Manchester.

The grandpa referred to was Robert Todd Lincoln, only son of the President to reach maturity. Of Robert's three grandchildren, two live in Vermont and the third in Virginia.

Once in Chicago over a half century ago Robert Todd Lincoln asked his wife what in the world are all the stores closed for today? Years later, retelling the story to his grandson Lincoln Isham, he said simply: "I forgot it was pop's birthday."

"Pop's birthday" isn't being marked by the three great-grandchildren today. Isham refused several dozen invitations to participate in the 150th anniversary celebration from Washington, D. C. to the Pacific Coast.

Mary Beckwith, 61, his cousin, lives on the family farm on the south side of Manchester. She plans to spend the day helping milk the cows and care for the Black Angus cattle.

Robert Todd Lincoln Beckwith, 54, Mary's brother, has no special plans either.

Retired, a law school graduate, he lives on his 280-acre farm near Urbana, Va., in the warm months and spends winters in Washington.

Lincoln Isham, 67, lives quietly in a large white colonial house surrounded by a picket fence. Dorset is a crisp clean Vermont village in a valley on the west or sunset side of the Green Mountains.

Set up Red Cross Appeal

At a meeting Thursday evening in the Abraham Lincoln Memorial Hospital dining room, additional campaign plans were announced by William Laughlin, 1959 Red Cross fund drive chairman.

Frank Krotz and Edgar Salzenstein have accepted co-chairmanship for the Lincoln business solicitation. These men, along with Ron Budd, Lincoln residential chairman; Ron Bucher, organizational chairman, and Don Mc-out the basic campaign organization except for the various township captains yet to be selected.

A tentative time table for this year's drive was presented for discussion. This schedule will be announced at a later date.

Laughlin reported briefly on the state fund meeting Wednesday at Chicago. More than 200 chapter and fund drive chairmen from Illinois attended the sessions aimed at stimulating the up-coming fund campaign. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, national president of the American Red Cross, was main speaker.

Business Activities

Ralph Blackburn, Mt. Pulaski, has been named manager of Lincoln Office Supply here, owner Vic Thudium announced today.

Blackburn will assume his new position March 1. For the last 12 years he has been a factory representative of Globe-Warner office supply manufacturing company of Cincinnati, Ohio.

"BAD BOY" DIES

NEW YORK — George Antheil, modern American composer and self-styled "Bad Boy of Music," died at his home Thursday night. Antheil, 58, created a sensation here and in Paris in the mid-1920s with his avant-garde "Ballet Mecanique." The cause of death was not announced.

Campbell Holton Funeral Monday

Campbell Holton, native of Lincoln who founded a wholesale grocery firm bearing his name, was buried after Monday afternoon services at Beck Memorial Home in Bloomington. He was born in Vincennes, Ind., and his father, the Rev. T. T. Holton was pastor of the Christian church in Lincoln many years.

Holton was in the grocery business 70 years, starting in Lincoln in 1881. A graduate of the high school here and valedictorian, he started in the old C. C. Ross store at $5 a week. In a few years he bought out the store, then moved to Bloomington in 1893.

As a businessman, he was a leader in the Bloomington-Normal community many years and had served as president of Illinois Wholesale Grocers Assn. and director of National Grocers Assn. Holton was an avid Democrat.

His character and his work in charity won him many recognitions. He and his wife, the former Adelaide Blake of Clinton, had been married 69 years and she survives with a son, Campbell Blake Holton of Bloomington; a daughter, Mrs. Ellen Margaret Larson of San Gabriel, Calif.; two grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Mr. Holton had been retired five years.

Services will be at 10 a.m., Thursday from St. Patrick's church of which she was a member. The Rev. D. F. Monaghan will officiate in Holy Cross cemetery.

The deceased was born at Elkhart Dec. 20, 1873, the daughter of John and Julia Welch Thornton. She was married to Thomas Burns in Elkhart Feb. 14, 1893, and he died Nov. 19, 1926. She leaves two daughter, Mrs. Ruth Cosby of Broadwell and Mrs. Mary Munkvold of Champaign; four grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, three brothers and three sisters.

To Dive For Missing Boy

NORMAL, Ill. (U. P.) — Police planned to send divers into a flooded gravel pit today to search for a missing boy whose green cap was found near the edge of the excavation.

The imitation leather cap belonging to 6-year-old Dennis Johnson, was found Monday.

The boy's mother, Mrs. Vivian Johnson, and his teacher, Mrs. Mary Jaspers definitely identified the cap as the one Dennis turned home from school.

The gravel pit is about as large as a football field. Portions of it are flooded 50 to 60 feet deep by Sugar Creek.

The pit is about one mile from the Johnson home. One of Dennis' gloves was found last week hanging from reeds in the creek, which flows through a field between the home and the school.

Measure Aimed to Freeze Property Tax Assessments

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Machinery to freeze property assessments for tax purposes at 50 per cent of full value has been set in motion with the introduction of 15 bills by Rep. John Morris (D - Chadwick) in the Illinois House.

The complex series of bills, designed to freeze assessments, would have the effect of abolishing multipliers.

Morris said he plans to amend the bills to raise the assessments limit to 60 per cent of full value. The limit would approximate current valuations.

For Equalization

Multipliers may be applied to township valuations by Boards of Review to equalize property values with other townships. The State Revenue Department assigns multipliers to counties to equalize property valuations between counties and to bring them to theoretical 100 per cent.

The House Revenue Committee, which Morris heads, will recommend further action on the bills. Its authority also covers another newly-introduced Morris measure to bring foreign corporations under provisions of the Illinois capital stock tax.

Last week, Morris filed a bill for a tax on one half per cent of the capital stock and undivided surplus of domestic corporations, with the revenue earmarked for education.

Others to Come

Other points in the Morris tax program still to be introduced include abolition of the personal property tax, exemption of food and clothing from the sales tax and creation of a state income tax.

Another bill to require every Illinois community to observe daylight saving time from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October came into the Legislature.

It was introduced by Sen. Arthur W. Sprague (R-LaGrange). Last week a similar measure was introduced in the House by Rep. Peter Miller (R-Chicago).

Other new bills would:

pointed by the governor. The commission would name a state purchasing agent.

Reduce the old age pension qualifying age from 65 to 60.

Voting First Time to Name Parliament

KATMANDU, Nepal — The new thrill of election fever gripped Nepal today as the little Himalayan kingdom between India and Red - ruled Tibet began voting for a Parliament for the first time in history.

Hundreds of banners flapped over the narrow streets winding among Katmandu's centuries' old Buddhist temples.

Posters of Nepal's nine political parties and hundreds of independent candidates dotted walls and fences.

In Slow Motion

It is a slow motion election with only 18 of the 109 House of Representatives seats at stake the first day. Eight more will be voted on Feb. 22, and 16 additional voting days are due before the House is completed April 2. Half the members of an upper house will be chosen by the House of Representatives and half by King Mahendra.

The West, the Communists and neutral India are watching the elections closely, concerned over the possibility of any policy changes in the buffer state. A half dozen Red correspondents representing major East European newspapers and news agencies are on hand.

Also present is a 10-man economic delegation from Moscow, which arrived Feb. 2 with a strategic offer of aid but which apparently got a snub for its pains.

Many observers believed the Soviets hoped to assist Communist candidates by announcing the loan in advance of the election. But the delegation was left

Living Cost up

WASHINGTON (U. S. — The cost of living edged up one-tenth of one per cent in January. It was still slightly below the November, 1958 record high.

The Labor Department reported today that rising food prices more than offset a slight decline in the rest of its consumer price index.

The index stood at 123.8 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This was one-tenth of one per cent below the all-time peak.

One C.P. Case At Elks Clinic

A new approach to cerebral palsy therapy adopted by the Elks Crippled Children's clinic was displayed at St. Clara's hospital Thursday by Miss Erminia Julliano. One Lincoln child was received by the clinic, which admitted a total of 22 cases. As the case load of cerebral palsied increases, Miss Julliano will be making regular stops in Lincoln. It is planned.

Of the 38 case total reported by County Nurse Irma Potter, including the single cerebral palsied youngster, were new cases. The clinics aid all Logan County youngsters seeking aid and orthopedic therapy. Cerebral palsy comes under this classification. Miss Julliano stressed that cerebral palsy is loss of motor, not mental function.

All persons seeking aid for orthopedically handicapped youngsters are advised to consult family physicians to gain admission to the Elks clinics. Clinician for the sessions is Dr. Paul Consigny, Peoria.

Next Elks cripple children clinic will be at Abraham Lincoln Memorial Hospital April 16, when Dr. Consigny will return. The clinic is held in Lincoln every two months and alternates sessions at St. Clara's and Lincoln Memorial hospitals.

Traces Logan's Horse History

A large group of youngsters and parents attended the first meeting held to organize a 4-H horse and pony project in Logan county. Donald Splain, Lincoln county instructor, gave instructions on breeds of horses and tips on selection. Splain said that the Logan county area has played an important part in the improvement of some of the most outstanding breeds of horses.

The quarter horse was developed in the west for working cattle because of its heavy muscling.

One of the most outstanding quarter horse stallions named Peter McCue was kept here in Lincoln for some time. The Morgan, famed as a Cavalry horse, was developed in the east. Some of the most noted breeders today of this popular breed are located in the Springfield and Delavan areas. The two most popular breeds of horses, today are the American Saddle Bred which has Arabian and thoroughbred foundation, and the standard

Campanella's Son Gets in Trouble With N.Y. Police

NEW YORK — A son of former Dodger catcher Roy Campanella and 17 other youths were arrested Monday after a gang fight.

David Campanella, 15, was charged with juvenile delinquency.

Spring on Way Finally?

(By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS) Sunny skies and almost springlike temperatures were the main course on Illinois' weather menu today.

Moreover, the immediate outlook called for continued warming through Wednesday.

The mercury ranged from an overnight low of 20 at Rockford to 27 at Rantoul, but fair skies were expected to warm northern areas to 40 or higher and the south to around 50.

Police said he was a leader of a gang called "the Chaplains," who challenged another gang to a fight over "rights" to hang around a bowling alley in Flushing, Queens.

Police said the gangs arranged to meet Monday, to settle the issue.

Spotted By Police

Police spotted about 30 boys in a vacant lot and investigated. Six who were fighting, including Campanella, were taken in with 12 others.

Campanella and three others under 16 were charged with juvenile delinquency. The older boys were charged with disorderly conduct. No one was injured.

Police said "the Chaplains" gang was made up largely of Negro and Spanish-speaking youths. Campanella is a Negro. The other boys involved in the fight were white.

He and two of the boys picked

Farm Leaders Eye Parity As Being Far Out of Line

WASHINGTON — Farm leaders today weighed a statement by Secretary of Agriculture Benson that 75 per cent of farm parity prices is now more of an incentive price for some crops than 100 per cent of parity used to be.

This statement gave the first public indication of just how far afield administration farm officials consider the parity price formula to be.

Declared By Law

agricultural prices.

It was declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

It is the theory of most existing farm laws that parity prices are fair prices to producers.

But both President Eisenhower and Benson have said the parity price standard is not a reliable one for measuring prices that would bring the highest possible level of farm income and economic stability to farming. They have urged that it be abandoned as a standard for determining government price supports.

More of an Incentive

In a speech before a business group at Absecon, N.J., Benson said 75 per cent of parity is more of an incentive for overproduction of wheat, cotton and rice than full parity was a generation ago.

He went on to say that support prices—some at or below the 75 per cent parity level—are attractive enough to encourage farmers to overproduce.

Benson said technological advances had greatly reduced farm production costs per unit.

Hence, a lower price than formerly would provide a profit, he indicated.

Soil District Leaders Stay

Logan Soil Conservation District Board met at the Farm Bureau building Wednesday evening and decided to carry over 1958 officers for 1959. They are: Jacob Lauer, Broadwell, chairman; Dean Hoblit, Atlanta, vice chairman; Robert Johnson, Lincoln, treasurer; and board members Fred Roetker, Atlanta, and Delmar Zumwalt, New Holland.

Three attending Logan County farm owners asked for assistance in planning conservation practices for their acreage. They are Paul Dahm, Beason; Dr. Robert N. Trapp, Lincoln; and James W. Abbott, Lincoln. All three farms are in Aetna township and are typical prairie soil farms with a persistent drainage problem.

Sollman Don Long says shallow surface drainage is best suited to the newly registered farms.

Dean Hoblit and Fred Roetker spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the directors training school at the fairgrounds in Springfield. Hoblit exhibited a farm miniature there, featuring a birdseye view of Logan county farm land.

Weather, Audience 'Warm' for Lettvin

Came, saw, conquered!

Theodore Lettvin, 32-year-old concert pianist, was warmly received and applauded by Lincoln members at the swank new L.H.S. auditorium Wednesday evening. Thursday (tonight) he performs at Pontiac.

Judged early in his program as perhaps a bit stiff and stuff. Lettvin shattered that illusion when late in his program he "opened up" with conversation about "Three Piano Pieces" or his program — composed by Howard Whittaker, who like Lettvin is an instructor in piano. Reception, Weather Warm

The master of the keyboard called Lincoln in the "temperate zone," reporting on his recent Canadian tour where the cold was clocked at 45 below zero and the wind cut like a knife. If this is the "temperate zone," then the applause given Lettvin is in the same category.

From the concert grand Baldwin imported for his performance, he ranged from tinkling treble to crashing crescendos — fact. It was evident that his start on the concert stage at the age of 12 has grown into something that undoubtedly will carry him to the heights. It was evident, too, that hard work has enabled him to attain his stature in the realm of music.

Lettvin's technique is one of the major characteristics of his performance. Serious, he devotes his whole energy and attention to the demands of the classics. There is none of the "show" in his playing. Piano playing is his "business," and he devotes full concentration to it. His Schubert and Chopin encores were convincing demonstration of his appeal to the membership.

Cheer "Moonlight Sonata"

The heavier Scarlatti sonatas, Schubert Impromptus, and Beethoven "Fantasia" provided the pre-intermission fare. The familiar first movement of the Beethoven "Moonlight Sonata" was among the high spots of the performance because of being well known. Then came the pin numbers, the Etudes recalling some of the elders of days when their children studied and practiced the composition.

Lettvin's remarks on Whittaker "Piano Pieces" were better understood and enjoyed. And these pieces are entirely "different." Closing program was Liszt's "Etude" number.

Single, Lettvin called his encores "as good as one could expect anywhere." He praised the new high school its "hearty and first-class" as well as for the enthusiastic cooperation. And as the concert wasn't enough for evening, he remained to play until 2:30 a.m. Thursday, he boarded an early morning train for Pontiac.

Third and last concert series will be the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, due to in Lincoln the evening of 23. Announcements regarding nomination and election of association directors were made by Robert Ryan, president, presiding the concert. — K.S.G.

St. Louis Paper Sells Building To Rival Sheet

ST. LOUIS (U. P.)—The evening St. Louis Post-Dispatch will print the 10th edition of its rival morning Globe-Democrat after a Newspaper Guild strike at the Globe is settled, both papers announced.

Both dailies said the Post, owned by the Pulitzer Publishing Co., has bought the Globe-Democrat building and its mechanical equipment. The price was not disclosed. The Globe is owned by S. I. Newhouse, publisher of a chain of newspapers.

The Globe will move to another building, not yet chosen. The Post plans to move its news and business offices and presses into the Globe building as soon as the Globe finds other quarters and the strike is over.

The Post building is newer and more modern but the newspaper has long been cramped. At one time the Post planned to construct a new building on the western edge of St. Louis but abandoned that idea.

It will combine its presses with the best ones in the Globe building and print both papers, becoming in effect a job printer for the Globe.

The two papers are five blocks apart on the same street in downtown St. Louis. In between, a block from the Globe, is the old St. Times building which is largely unoccupied.

Officials of both papers said each would carry on a separate unit. The Post-Dispatch issued a statement saying:

"The Globe-Democrat remains the property of S. I. Newhouse and both newspapers will retain their separate identities."

The Globe has been closed eight days by a strike of the Guild over a pension plan. Other provisions of a new contract have been agreed on.

MEETING ASKED

The unexpected announcement came late Friday as Globe-Guild negotiators met with a federal conciliator. The meeting was asked by management.

Immediately after the session ended, Herbert L. Monk, chairman of the strike committee, announced, "The strike is still on. The picket lines will be kept up. All pickets are to report on schedule. The sale will not affect our strike."

Some 330 guildsmen, mostly office and editorial employees, are on strike and their picket lines are being observed by about 700 mechanical workers.

Lincoln Resident Dies; Services To Be Tuesday

Mrs. Christine Riegan, 105 Sunday st., died at 7:03 a.m. Saturday in Abraham Lincoln Memorial hospital. The body is at Holland and Barry Funeral Home and friends may call there after 2:30 p.m. Monday.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday from the funeral-home with the Rev. H. J. Barth officiating. Burial will be in Union cemetery.

The deceased was born Dec. 21, 1870, in Algona, Ia., the daughter of Carl and Johanna Riecke Reetz. She was married to Frederick Riegan in Lincoln in 1895 and he died in 1932. Survivors are the following children: Mrs. Marguerite Benham, Mrs. Cecilia Crews, Herman and William A. Riegan of Lincoln; Henry of Oak Ridge, Va.; Carl of Jacksonville; and Fred of Urbana, Ohio; 16 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Preceding her in death were a sister and three brothers.

Mrs. Riegan was a member of St. John church and the Ladies Aid.

Naval Officer Says Russians Might Have Broken Cables

ARGENTIA, Nfld. (U. P.)—The U.S. naval lieutenant who searched the Novorossiysk says the Soviet trawler "probably quite likely" had something to do with breaking transatlantic cables.

But, he emphasizes, "I don't know whether accidentally or intentionally."

LT. Donald Sheely of Falls Church, Va., told a news conference after a long voyage home.

Soviets offered no resistance to his boarding party on Thursday and sailed away on being told to leave the Grand Banks area where five cables were broken.

In Sydney, N.S., the Eastern Telegraph and Telephone Co. said a patrol plane had sighted about 20 trawlers—15 of them Soviet—still operating in the area Friday. The pilot said the ships "just appear to be fishing." Though seas and drifting, ice held up repairing of the cables. Two Western Union cables are standing by but the weather forecast was gloomy for beginning work.

The Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda called the boarding "illegal and the official Soviet news agency Tass described it as the "unlawful act."

Neither gave any immediate indication whether the Soviets intended to make a formal diplomatic protest. If they do, they face a rebuff.

U.S. State Department press officer Lincoln White said in Washington "I don't think any apology is involved in any way, shape or form. This was not a hostile action, but an investigation clearly provided for under terms of a treaty."

The Soviet accounts of the boarding in the Grand Banks fishing grounds off Newfoundland made no mention of the 1946 treaty which permits inspection of the documents of ships suspected of damaging oceanic cables, intentionally or accidentally.

Commander Ernest J. Korte of U.S. Navy radar picket ship Roy O. Hale, who sent the party aboard, said the boarding was a routine story. It quoted Adm. Jerauld Wright, commander of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, as saying "The skipper of the Soviet trawler showed a friendly attitude and acted in a cooperative spirit and that nothing was found to show any other object than fishing."

He refused two invitations to address the court, but later he told reporters, "I am not the first innocent person to be sentenced nor will I be the last."

He said he had authorized his attorneys to push the appeal, filed last week.

Financial Series Starts Monday in The Courier

Your country's national debt is a massive 238 billion dollars and headed higher. Is this of personal concern to you? Getting the money to pay the interest and obtaining the billions for day-to-day governmental expenses has become an acute problem for Uncle Sam. Your pocketbook and your living are affected. There were no injuries or arrests in either mishap.

Beck Sentenced To 5-Year Term

TACOMA, Wash. (U. P.)—Former Teamster Union President Dave Beck received a five-year sentence and $50,000 fine Friday for income tax evasion, plus a double-buried denunciation from the judge.

"The exposure of Mr. Beck's insatiable greed, resulting in his fall from high office, is a real shocking story," said U.S. District Judge George Boldt, in a scathing, 20-minute lecture before passing sentence.

Beck was indicted for covering the huge $70,000 to $80,000 costs and was released. After his conviction Feb. 19, Beck spent a night behind bars for the first time in his life before appeal bond was set.

A motion for a new trial was denied. The government could claim more than half a million dollars from Beck.

He was charged with evading $240,000 for the years 1950-53, but the government raised its estimate, of the amount actually owed to $258,636. In addition to the fine and court costs, a 50 percent fraud penalty of $129,318 and $95,956 in interest at 6 per cent brings the total to $555,911.

Beck, 54, stood calm and quiet, one hand clenched behind his back and the other in a trouser pocket, as the judge began his denunciation.

He refused two invitations to address the court, but later he told reporters, "I am not the first innocent person to be sentenced nor will I be the last."

He said he had authorized his attorneys to push the appeal, filed last week.

Gordon Rademaker Joining Reserves

Gordon L. Rademaker of Hartsburg has joined the U. S. Army Reserves, and has been assigned to "B" Battery, 734th Field Artillery Battalion in Lincoln. Recruit Rademaker will leave for Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., in July to begin his 6 months active-duty training under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955.

Upon completing his training, he will be released back to the Reserve to complete an additional 3 years with his unit. This training consists of 48 meetings each year plus 15 days at summer camp.

Ronald joins his brother, Myrl, in B Battery, who has been a member of the Reserve unit for 13 years. There are now five sets of brothers in the Lincoln Battery.

Road signs publicizing San Jose have arrived and will be put up at the outskirts of the roads leading into town. It was announced that Boy Scouts, which are a project of the Lions, will sell Scotch Life safety tape during the Community Sale today.

Plans for a banquet honoring the grade school patrol boys and girls were talked over and tabled.

The club volunteered to put the rubber baseboard around the floor of the Community Center before the sale. The Center was to be used by the San Jose Women's Club for a lunch stand.

There were 17 members from the Lincoln Lions at guests of the meeting. The district convention of Lions will be in Lincoln March 22 and it is expected that a large number of San Jose members will be present.

MAN OF MONTH: Service for Others, Goal of Zimmermann

His main enjoyment in life is working with people—either as a law enforcement officer or in the role of a civic leader. This interest in the welfare of others, at no little sacrifice to himself, qualifies Kenneth E. Zimmermann as the Man of the Month.

Born in Mason City, the Logan county chief deputy in the sheriff's office in Lincoln is still at it as March of Dimes campaign director for 1959.

Born the son of Jesse and Nellie Griffin Zimmermann, he moved to New Holland when a lad of 8 years. When he was a fifth grader the Man of the Month moved to Lincoln, entering Central school. He was graduated by Lincoln high school in the class of 1932—having lettered in football at a guard post and also participating in track.

Father of Two Sons

"Zim," as the friendly deputy is known, married a Taylor in 1939. The family, including two sons, resides at 748 Bryan. The boys are Thomas, a Junior; and Robert, a freshman at Lincoln high. There are also four married sisters.

War service and various jobs occupied Zimmermann before he went into the sheriff's office as a Deputy in July of 1954. He was a charter member when the lively Lions club was organized in Lincoln, is now its president. The job he has had since last July ever since joining the Lions emblem he has been active in its work.

He has been chairman of the Lions club which enables children to have eyeglasses they would not otherwise obtain. Zimmermann is also a member of the IOOF lodge.

In 1956 his willing hand of service was clapped by the Salvation Army for which he charmaned the financial appeal. He now serves on the Salvation Army advisory board. In both 1957 and 1958 he was chairman of the Crusade for Freedom campaign program in Logan, working with and inspiring the Courier carrier boys in their collection of funds for this worthy cause. For several years he was a Cubmaster in Scouting. In the Pony League he was a coach for five seasons.

Headed Brush Brothers

A Chamber of Commerce member since 1950, Zimmermann for six years has chairmaned ed the Christmas decorating task in the downtown area. Came the Lincoln Centennial and he was "head whicker" for the Brothers of the Brush, a group which made no small contribution to the success of the 100th birthday celebration.

In First Baptist church Deputy Zimmermann has served as a trustee and was chairman for the financial campaign last year. A Republican, he is active in party affairs at the local level. Zimmermann holds membership in Logan post 263, American Legion.

For two years he wore the uniform of a United States Army field artilleryman—serving in the European theatre. For seven months he was a "non-combatant," languishing in a Nazi prison camp.

Stationed on the Siegfried line as the Allies were driving for Berlin and union with the Russians, February's Man of the Month was nabbed captive when the Germans forged a breakthrough. His treatment at the hands of the Nazis was brutal, Zimmermann's words. While a
