DANCER BURNED
AMSTERDAM (U) — A flare-back badly burned the mouth of a fire-breathing African dancer. In his act Camera Family, 28-year-old Member of the Guinness National Ballet, takes a mouthful of gas and then ignites it by blowing over a flaming torch held before him. Sunday night the flame flashed back into his mouth and he had to be hospitalized.

Fair Notes

Ginny Tiu, the celebrated juvenile entertainer at the Fair, left little doubt to her star status when asked to pose for a picture. The eight-year-old obliged but told the Courier photographer to "Please hurry, it is very hot out here."

Mrs. Edith L. Swearingen of Heyworth has announced that this will be her last year for entries at fairs. The 80-year-old fair fan, who drives her own auto to all the county fairs she can attend, said her entry in the Logan county show this year marks the 60th year she has been exhibiting at fairs. She thinks it is time she gave the younger gals a chance.

There were 800 extra seats on the Fair track for Sunday night's show, on a tarpaulin laid under them. But none were used—it rained. So the revue performers had fun addressing those in the "front row."

Save for leaks in the grandstand roof, Sunday night's crowd would have been dryer. The roof has been fixed and re-fixed until the only recourse is a new covering.

Scheduled at the Fair for Tuesday is George T. Wilkins of Springfield, state superintendent of public instruction. His hangout will be the Democrats' tent.

Republicans at their tent also expecting to have some state office candidates for Tuesday's Fair goings-on. Ray Page of Springfield, candidate for state superintendent of instruction, among those expected.

Who is the person in panda clothes at the Fair? Last time we saw the "animal," Lew Barwick had it on a chain leash. At any rate, the "uniform" is elaborate.

Main bones of contention at the Fair are those in people's feet—they get so tired!

Better lightning is enhancing Fair programs—$2,000 has been so far expended—more will be spent in coming years.

Junior Good Citizens didn't come out right—mathematically—when presented at the Logan Fair Saturday evening. Forty-three is an odd number and since there is one more boy than girl, two young gentlemen were assigned to one of the J.G.C. girls.

Umbrellas, raincoats, rain hoods, etc., failed to keep Sunday Fair goers from getting damp. But they took it good-naturedly for the most part. Straw was laid to make a pathway across the track between the infield and Fair lot proper.

Dancers and other performers had more than one slip on the rain-slicked stage—one referring to its "like glass out here." Pianist Jo Ann Castle joking about the puddles from the stage wetting her as she tapped her foot in rhythm with her tunes.

And that wasn't sweat Revue Emcee Bill King was wiping from his brow—it was rainwater. Two lads from the crowd making an easy $1 apiece as they were called on stage to mimic a dancer.

Shoe shining was in order Monday as Fair goers cleaned the mud from their soaked footwear.

Upturn for Stock Trade

NEW YORK — The stock market pushed upward early this afternoon in fairly active trading. Gains were held to under 1 point for most key issues, although a number of the higher-priced growth stocks tacked on 1 to 5 points.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.4 at 221.8 with Industrials up 1.6, rails up 1.3 and utilities up .7. The morning gain of this average was almost triple Tuesday's advance in the first two hours.

The market's strong finish Tuesday carried through this morning to a limited extent. Prices were higher from the start, but they made little headway as the session continued.

Volume in the first hour was nearly double Tuesday's first hour. Motors and steels were among the most heavily traded groups.

Mrs. Woosley, 67, Struck by G.M.&O. Engine

A special Gulf, Mobile & Ohio passenger train, carrying Chicago Mayor Richard Daley and other Democrats to Governor's Day at the Illinois State Fair at Springfield, struck and killed an elderly Lincoln woman who was crossing the tracks on foot at the Peoria street crossing Thursday forenoon.

Mrs. Robert Woosley, 67, of 511 N. Sangamon St., who lives just west of the railroad tracks, returning home with a sack of groceries, failed by some five feet to make it safely across the rails. She was struck by the engine of the train and thrown approximately 35 feet by the impact. The woman was killed instantly.

The train, one of two specials carrying an estimated 1,800 passengers to the Fair, left Chicago at 7:21 a. m. The time of the tragedy here was 10:35 a. m.

R. F. Jeter, Chicago, superintendent of terminals for the G. M. & O., who was riding in the engine of the train, said he first noticed the woman as the train approached Keokuk street. He stated she first stopped on the east side of the tracks as if aware of the approaching train, then started running across the tracks.

A nearby neighbor who witnessed the tragedy said Mrs. Woosley was walking with her head down, looking towards the ground, and never appeared to be aware of the train. The witness claimed the train was blowing its whistle continuously.

AT HIGH SPEED

Jeter said the train was traveling between 75 and 79 miles per hour when it struck the woman, maximum speed for the train. According to the railroad official, there is no limit on speed of trains through Lincoln.

He said the only speed regulation in the run between Chicago and St. Louis is in Springfield where the speed is 25 m. p. h., as set by the Illinois Commerce Commission. J. Clark, Bloomington, was engineer of the train.

Sheriff Joe Scanlon, Chief Deputy Ken Zimmerman, Lincoln Police Chief Earl Minder and Sgt. Jerry Agnew investigated.

MARRIED AT PAXTON

The deceased was born Sept. 23, 1895 at Harpster, the daughter of Greenup and Elizabeth Reidel Dozier. She was married to Robert Woosley in Paxton Aug. 22, 1917 and he survives as do two daughters, Mrs. Mary Waldron of Williamsville and Mrs. Helen Delhl of Girard; two brothers, Harry of Harpster and Fred, formerly of Stanford and now in the process of locating in Minnesota; and five grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son and a sister.

Mrs. Woosley was a member of Lincoln Christian church. The body is at Holland and Barry Funeral Home where funeral arrangements are being made.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Venture where a belief is sound and data readily available. In the latter connection, you may have to search more. If anything is worth doing, it usually entails complexities, but also bigger rewards.

You born today are magnetic, a witty entertainer, emotional. Leo rules the Heart especially, which gives an idea of the realm to be nurtured, guarded, controlled. Shun rashness, avoid hasty decisions and a tendency to haughtiness. You share your goods with others readily, have great pride in family, and once disciplined, can become an outstanding executive, respected by employees and superiors. ## Yonder to Stand Trial at Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Frank Yonder, 24, alleged torture specialist of a gang area families in their homes, today was returned to Cook County to stand trial.

Roswell T. Spencer, chief investigator of the state's attorney's office, said his men found a crude but razor-sharp knife on Yonder when they searched him Friday at the Washtenaw County Jail in Ann Arbor, Mich.

The knife apparently had been fashioned from a jail table spoon, Spencer said.

Spencer said he had failed to convince Nick Guldo, 41, alleged leader of the gang, to return also for trial.

Friday, Guldo asked the Washtenaw County court for a lawyer and said he would fight extradition. Yonder stood mute when extradition warrants were presented in court and was ordered extradited.

The two men were seized by Michigan state police several weeks ago near Ypsilanti after a traffic violation.

Stock Mart Up Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market managed to nudge unevenly higher in moderate trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 224.3 with industrials off .1, rails unchanged, and utilities up .4.

The rise on average resulted from a good showing by a selection of market wheelhorses which outweighed losses. It was an unconvincing advance, however, and brokers noted that profit taking was evident following a rise in five of the past six sessions.

Martin-Marietta, the market leader in the past three sessions, continued in demand as it responded further to news that it has been named prime contractor for the Titan III project. Other space age and electronic issues were mixed.

Decatur Pastor to Speak Here Sept. 10

The Logan County Home Economics Extension Council met Monday and finalized plans for the 16th annual meeting of the association, which is scheduled for Sept. 10 at Immanuel Lutheran church parish hall in Lincoln.

Dr. Walter L. Reppenhagen, minister of the First Baptist church in Decatur, has been selected as guest speaker.

Women of the church will serve the noon luncheon. Reservations are $1.35. Reservations with the money are due in the county office by Sept. 5.

County Craft club plans for a Sept. 17 meeting were also discussed. Mrs. Pearl Smith of Edinburg will conduct a hat-making session on this date, in the gym of First Methodist church in Lincoln beginning at 9:30 a.m.

A sewing machine clinic was announced for Sept. 11. Prof. Frank Andrew from the University of Illinois, will be the instructor. This clinic will be at the Recreation department building in Lincoln from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Miss Genevieve Gentes, home adviser, explained the duties of council members when an adviser is not in the county. Mrs. John E. Rohrer, president, had charge of the business meeting.

MOUTH-FULL

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — It was bait that caused the bulge in the cheek of a youngster who showed up for a fishing rodeo at Coonskin Park.

"What have you got in your mouth, son?" asked an attendant. "Worms," replied the boy.

CASH GRAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — No wheat, oats or soybean sales. Corn sample grade yellow 99 1/4-1.07 1/4.

Crickets Taking Over Most Everywhere Here

The little fellows seem to be everywhere . . . council chambers . . . homes . . . stores . . . trees . . . carteriors.

How long will it last? That's the question on minds of Lincolniters as thousands of small crickets invade the city.

They are especially numerous at night when they come forth to feed. Their diet includes grain, remnants of insects, fabrics, carpets, and bookbinding.

Of interest to those annoyed by the chorus of the male chirps. If it is true that the cricket is a prop of good fortune, the merchants should have a good season—at night store walls and fronts are black with crickets.

Attending the conference with the governor and Holman were The Rev. Blaine Ramsey Jr. of Cairo, a vice president of the NAACP; Raymond Harth of Chicago, an attorney for the NAACP; and Charles Koen, 17, representing the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee of Cairo.

Holman urged Kerner to "restore law and order" by sending the state police or National Guardsmen to Cairo with strict orders to enforce the law against all violators.

Kerner noted in his statement his office has alerted the state police to stand by in the event of a "breakdown of the local law enforcement agencies."

Holman, who met with administrators on the Statehouse after his conference with the governor, urged them to make arrangements to the attorney only if they intended to go in court to back up the negotiations.

"You've gone through this of it," Holman said. "No time for you to stand up counted. This is no time to be afraid."

Reynolds Metals was also active on the day, closing at 29 1/2, up a point.

The Industrial Average posted closed above 600. This average was up 6.61. Automobile and television issues were active, with American Motors climbing 1/2 to 16 1/2 and General Motors up 1/4 on volume of 47,200 shares to close at 52 1/2. Sentiment in this group was aided by optimistic projections of fourth quarter car sales. American Telephone jumped 2 1/2 to 112 1/2 and General Telephone to 20 1/2, up 1/2. These two issues were bolstered by the Senate vote to end lengthy debate on the communications satellite bill. Several growth stocks were active with Xerox up 4 1/2, Polaroid up 1 1/2, Litton Industries up 5 1/2 and International Business Machines up 7 1/2. President Kennedy's address to the nation the prior evening was only of minor significance to the market but his comments cleared the air of uncertainty regarding a tax cut and carried with them some optimism for 1963 earnings.

Aug. 15: Prices continued to advance sharply with the Industrials up 4.86 on the day. Volume was the largest in over a month on this day. Utilities were up 0.86 and rails advanced 1.05. Market sentiment was aided by optimistic projections for auto sales and an end to uncertainty over a quick tax cut, plus a happier mood among traders because of the penetration above 600 in the Dow-Jones Industrials. U. S. Steel was up 1/2 to close at 45 1/2 and Inland Steel was up 1 1/2 to close at 37 1/2. Caterpillar tractor was boosted by a Commerce Department move to speed up highway construction by adding nearly $2 billion dollars to the amount the states can spend in the current fiscal year. The stock climbed 2 1/2 points to close at 33 1/2. In the vending group Automatic Canteen declined 2 1/2 points to close at advanced 0.06 and rails were down 0.09. Activity was quiet in the morning but the afternoon session was activated by a Defense Department statement that it would award a substantial contract for the Titan III space booster. Informed sources indicated Martin-Marietta was likely to receive this contract. The stock closed at 24 on turnover of 226,300 shares, up 2-58 for the day. The entire session was featured by general activity in the aerospace group, with Aerojet-General up 1/2 to close at 57 1/2 due to its connection with the Titan I and Titan II missile contracts. Other stocks in the aerospace group included an advance by Avco to 23 1/2, up 1/2 and Ling-Temco-Vought up a point to 18 1/2. Several of the lower priced electronics issues advanced in sympathy with Transatron up 1/2 to 9 1/2, General Instrument up 1/2 and 15 1/2 and Hoffman Electronics up 1/2 to 10.

Aug. 17: The market closed the week on a high note, with the Industrial Average advancing 3.31 on volume of 3,430,000 shares. Activity was light at the opening but after ten o'clock trading activity increased substantially in all groups. Featured stocks were Westinghouse Electric up 1/2, General Motors up 1/2, North American Aviation up 1/2, Sears up 1 1/2 and Chrysler up 1 1/2.

Mason City Youth Wins Scholarship

Seventeen students will receive $300 Sears-Roebuck Foundation scholarships, according to Assistant Dean Cecil D. Smith, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Among the recipients is Jimmy Alvin Liesman of Mason City.

The awards are granted on the basis of academic ability, financial need and evidence of leadership.

The 13 boys and three girls entering the University will study agriculture or home economics.

The Sears-Roebuck Foundation Scholarship Program was started in 1936 at five midwestern land-grant colleges, including the University of Illinois. By 1914 the program had spread to all the land-grant colleges.

More than 550 young people have received scholarship grants to study agriculture or home economics at the U. of I. since the program began. A recent survey indicates that over 73 per cent of those who enter college on a Sears-Roebuck Foundation Scholarship complete work for a degree.

Auto Collision Injured Woman

A two-car accident sent the wife of one of the drivers to Abraham Lincoln Memorial hospital Saturday at 2:30 p.m. The hospital reported that Mrs. Betty Holmes, of Carpentersville, sustained a head injury and was badly shaken up.

According to police, John Holmes, 28, driving east on Pulaski street crashed into the rear of a car driven by Maxine Eichman, of 201 Portland ave. Miss Eichman had reportedly slowed down to allow a vehicle ahead of her to turn into a drive.

Holmes was ticketed by city police for following too close. Miss Eichman sustained a left arm injury and complained of back injuries, but declined to go to a hospital.

Two Lincoln cars were involved in a minor traffic accident Saturday at 11:17 a.m. near the Clinton street parking lot.

Vehicles operated by Robert D. Schacht, 34, of 231 Nugent pl. and Mary R. Florence, of 929 N. Hamilton st., collided as Schacht was leaving the parking lot and Miss Florence was backing from a parking position.

Stock Market Moves Uneven

NEW YORK (U) — The stock market moved unevenly in sluggish trading early this afternoon. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off a minimal 1 at 226.3 with industrials off .6, rails up .2 and utilities up .2. Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional. A few selected issues showed movements of a point or more.

The approach of the Labor Day weekend, a traditional milepost for business and the market, was in mind. Some brokers saw the lack-luster market as hesitancy based on caution regarding how things will go in the fall.

Although steel mill orders were reported up again from the prior week, steel stocks were about unchanged to a shade lower after starting on a steady note. Motors were narrowly mixed along with most other important groups.

An assortment of stocks in various sections of the list responded to special news or recommendations.

Twentieth Century-Fox was fractionally lower after Darryl Zanuck, president of the firm, said some films on the production schedule may be postponed.

Howard Johnson, the restaurant and motor hotel chain, was admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange and opened at 44 1/4, up a point from last Friday's bid price in the over-the-counter market. The price moved up a substantial fraction in later dealings.

IBM added about a point and

ures or percentages. There are many refinements of this general idea.

One is called motivational. That is, consumers or businessmen are questioned closely to see why they do this or that, buy this product instead of another. Going a step further the designers of such problems say they can detect subconscious reasons that affect sales, product popularity, or a corporation's image.

In Color Field

Subdivisions of such inquiries are almost infinite. Color experts use them to determine package and product designs. The variations of scent become subjects for consultations in directors' boardrooms. Consumers' ideas about taste, or lack of it, are eagerly sought by makers of beverages.

See in very much part of the surveying gambit. A recent example: A survey has been made of what young couples think of bucket seats in cars as opposed to the old style seats built for teenagers.

The finding: The honeymoon is over when the couple says it says nothing wrong with bucket seats.

State School Band

Playing at Delavan

Lincoln State School band, directed by George Treatch, will play at Delavan during its quinquennial celebration. The band from here is to play a concert at 4:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 31. This day is being observed as Armed Forces Day and there will be a salute to the armed forces with special exhibits and programs at the armory.

Honored at a banquet at 6 p.m. will be the National Guard unit which will, like the town, be marking its anniversary. The original Guard company was organized in 1878. Before that, for Civil War service, Delavan township raised the nucleus of two infantry companies for the North-South war.

Thus the military in Delavan is 100 years old.

Along Farm Front

WASHINGTON (U) — Wheat growers in 35 states vote Thursday on whether to return to crop control program until this year.

The decision will play a key role in the future of federal grain production and price support programs.

Another key decision may be reached this week if, as seems likely, House and Senate conference committees begin work on the farm bill.

The bill passed by the Senate earlier this month authorizes a more rigid control program for 1954-crop wheat than the House favored. It also eliminates mandatory price supports for feed grains beginning in 1954. The House had cut the price support level, but did not eliminate them. Both bills would continue next year the present feed grain program offering payments and price supports for voluntary reduction of acreages.

The wheat program to be voted on Thursday would return to a 55 million-acre planting allotment for the 1953 crop and would impose marketing quotas on the individual farm allotments. Violators would be subject to heavy penalty taxes.

Under this year's program, growers were required to reduce plantings at least 10 per cent below their shares of the 55-million-acre national allotment which had been in effect previously.

The 55-million-acre program must be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting. It has never been defeated, but there is more opposition this year than ever.

Should the program be defeated, price supports for wheat would be $1.21 a bushel compared with $1.52 if it were approved.

WASHINGTON (U) — The Foreign Agricultural Service reported today there is a growing trend abroad for use of the American-type blade cigarette.

Along Farm Front

DES MOINES, Iowa (U) — Flushed with victory over the repudiation by two large firms of a controversial farm report, the National Farmers Organization started today an attempt to boost farm prices by holding products off the market.

Oren Lee Staley, 33, of Rea, Mo., NFO president said he is confident such an action would force processors of farm products to agree to long term contracts calling for higher prices.

NFO members from 15 states were to vote today on proposals to hold cattle, hogs, sheep and grain off the market. The organization went into its meeting after having gained statements from Ford Motor Co. and Sears, Roebuck and Co. disclaiming any connection with a farm plan proposed by the Committee on Economic Development (CED).

Theodore O. Yntema, Ford vice president, and Theodore V. Houser, a Sears director, were members of the CED research committee that drafted the plan calling for removal of some two million farmers from the farms and reduction of farm price supports over the next five years.

The NFO had demonstrated against the two firms, demanding that they issue statements clarifying whether the report represented the official policy of the companies.

Ford repudiated the report Sunday. Staley said he received a telegram Monday from Sears officials, saying that the company "is not connected in any way with the report on agriculture by the CED."

Staley said he expects quick approval of the holding action by the more than 15,000 NFO members expected at the meeting.

Feeble Advance By Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — A decline by steels marred a feeble stock market advance today and prices were irregular early this afternoon in light dealings.

Reflecting the small change in the over-all market, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down a minimal .1 to 223.2 with industrials off .3, rails up .1 and utilities up .1.

Trading was the slowest of the week as the Labor Day weekend neared and some Wall Streeters began to depart for their last summer holiday.

Caution over possible developments after the Labor Day milestone has prevailed all this week and trading was lethargic, under the assumption that nothing much will happen to stock prices, barring surprise news, until after the weekend.

Steels were increasingly depressed by Wheeling Steel's dividend cut and expectations that others may follow. Motors perked up, however, all of them showing small gains. The rest of the list was scrambled.

As the steels retreated, Wheeling, U.S. Steel and Jones & Laughlin fell more than a point
