Stocks Take Another Loss

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market took another fairly sharp loss in moderately active trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press Average of 60 stocks at noon was off 1.2 at 213.7 with industrials down 2.1, rails down .3, and utilities down .5.

Although losses of most key stocks ranged only from fractions to about a point, weakness in a scattering of pivotal issues brought them declines of more than that and weighted market averages more sharply to the decline.

Some of the "growth" issues also fell more sharply than the over-all list.

Losses of around 4 points by Du Pont and about 2 apiece by Eastman Kodak and Consolidated Natural Gas helped drag down the popular market indicators.

IBM sank more than 7 points. Polaroid was down more than 3, Xerox and Korvette more than 2 each.

Aerospace issues and electronics displayed a string of minor losses.

The oils also took fractional losses.

The Dow Jones Industrial average at noon was off 5.73 at 573.25.

Little Rest in White House During Weekend

WASHINGTON — It was the Sabbath, but not a day of rest at the White House. There was no lull before the storm.

The high-voltage hours of Saturday flowed right into Sunday, and the lights in the Army section of the Pentagon blazed past dawn.

The Pentagon's bright windows were just one tipoff that the clash between the state of Mississippi and the federal government over enrolling a Negro into the all-white state university was building toward a climax.

The President canceled at the last moment a weekend trip to Newport, R. I. and remained in the White House, directing what his aides described as "a cool operation."

Talks to Barnett

Three times Saturday he talked by telephone to Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi who had defied court orders and refused to permit Negro James H. Meredith to enroll in the school. Then Kennedy gave orders which kept the Pentagon's lights burning.

Coolly, deliberately and with no signs of anger, according to his assistants, the President arranged for absorbing the Mississippi National Guard into federal service and for assembling regular Army troops.

Dressed in a gray suit, white shirt and blue tie, he dined at his regular hour — about 8:30 p.m. Later he signed the proclamation and executive order formally thrusting the federal government's power into the school crisis, and announced he was going to address the nation on radio and television Sunday night.

It was early Sunday by the time he went upstairs to his living quarters. He turned on the hi-fi and listened to music before going to bed. Sunday broke bright and rather chilly. By 10 a.m. Kennedy was attending Mass at St. Stephen's church.

Twice Kennedy took time out for a thoughtful stroll about the south lawn, the vast spread on the Washington Monument side of the White House grounds.

New reports from Oxford's the campus of the University of Mississippi — flowed into the White House. At least a dozen times the President talked by telephone with his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

In shirtsleeves he worked on his speech, sharpening the emphasis and revising to conform with developments.

About an hour before air time, the President abruptly delayed his speech for 2½ hours, until 10 p.m., whipping up speculation that a truce or settlement had been reached.

Given Apartment

Then the word came: Meredith was in the school, had been given an apartment but not allowed to register because, said school officials, it was Sunday.

Then he was talking, to the students and Miss accept the situation, ob and to close the book case.

The answer came finished speaking. Th erupted into riot and federal reinforcements ordered to Oxford.

As the hour hand bit Monday morning, the and the attorney gene in the office receiving a crisis that was far

Word of Thanks

Downers Grove, Ill.
Oct. 2, 1962

Lincoln Daily Courier
Lincoln, Illinois
Gentlemen:

On Sept. 25th I had an accident near Atlanta and was hospitalized in Lincoln. I would like to thank the many people of Logan County who did so much to help a stranger.

The police officer who followed up the case, far beyond his official requirements; the local garage people who picked up my belongings and stored the wrecked car; the local insurance people who came immediately and acted in my behalf; the stranger who went out of his way to get a paper from my home town for me; the store keepers in town, who came to the hospital after store hours to outfit me; the stranger who washed and ironed my soiled shirt; the hospital staff who treated me like a long lost brother.

Where else in the world could so many good Samaritans be found in one community.

Very truly yours,
T. J. LaBounty

World University Representative Visits Lincoln Jr. College Friday

Miss Hollice Gruber, field representative for World University Service, visited Friday on the campus of Lincoln College in the interest of that organization.

World University Service is designed to give aid to students in other parts of the world and to increase understanding between university communities throughout the world. It deals with two types of aid—emergency and long term. Under emergency aid they are helping to rebuild the university in Algeria, destroyed during the civil war there, and are helping to support a thousand Algerian students who have fled to Tunisia and Morocco to enter school and over a thousand who have fled to Europe for the same purpose.

It is also helping to rebuild the University Concepcion in Chile which was destroyed by an earthquake. Under the long term aid the 1962-63 program provides for ca and some South American countries; to establish or expand mimeographing projects for text book and lectures in university centers in Indonesia and Vietnam; to build cooperative dormitories in university centers in India, Nigeria, Greece and Peru and to establish scholarships in almost all African, Asian and South American Universities.

These projects are financed partly by funds raised by the students in their own countries and partly by funds raised in the wealthier countries of Europe and America. In the United States funds are raised in the college and university communities. In Lincoln College the funds are raised under the sponsorship of the Student Senate through the medium of their yearly carnival. The international budget of the organization is over five million dollars and the quota for the midwestern region which Forecasters who predicts the decline of baseball as the "Great American Sport" have been conspicuously quiet this past week. Nothing, except perhaps a political campaign, can arouse the emotions and feelings of league playoff, followed by a World Series. Even a trip a few times around the earth almost took a backseat to the final playoff game.

The proposed judicial amendment to the state constitution, to be voted on at the Nov. 6 election, is creating more than the usual interest which usually accompanies a side issue at a general election. This is strictly a bi-partisan issue with one finding Republicans and Democrats joining together to promote or denounce the proposal. It is the duty of all voters to become informed on the issue to vote wisely.

Speaking of the coming election, the deadline for those who still must register and have not done so is Tuesday, Oct. 9.

On the back of the card, with room left for a signature and address, was the following message: "Please take notice that I respectfully resent the unnatural warfare being waged against the sovereign State of Mississippi and urge that you give more serious attention to facing up to the Communist menace and our Cuban problem." This slick support of Gov. Ross Barnett was left on a table at the Woman's Club building Wednesday night when the Junior Women's club sponsored a program at which political candidates spoke. Wednesday, October 3: Trading continued light today, working moderately higher early in the day and drifting downward after one o'clock to close with Industrials off 0.21, rails off 0.26 and utilities off 0.50. Again the "glamor" stocks were most active and followed the general pattern of the market, with Polaroid advancing to a high of 117% before slipping back to close at 114, again topping the market in volume for the third straight session with 2,600 shares traded.

Thursday, October 4: The World Series tied and won over continued disinterest on the part of investors and the result was a moderate rally of 3.89 points for the Industrials, 0.35 for rails and 0.55 for utilities. As usual, auto stocks and "glamor" issues dominated trading on a volume of 2,530,000 shares, the least since Sept. 10.

Friday, October 5: Today's session, with a volume of 2,730,000 shares traded, featured the so-called "glamor" stocks again. Polaroid rose 2 1/2 points and Xerox 3%. Conversely, Korvette was off 2 points. Again the market was comparable to that of last Friday, with no really definite indication as to which way it may be headed. Most brokers believe that course of the market is an indication of the indecision and confusion exhibited by the investing public. The Dow-Jones industrial average closed up 4.18 points, rails up 0.40 and utilities up 0.77.

Stock Market Edges Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market edged higher in sluggish dealings early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .5 at 218.2 with Industrials up .8, rails up .1, and utilities up .3.

Changes of most key stocks were fractional.

The assortment of trading favorites among "growth" stocks moved up routinely. There were enough gainers among the chemicals, aerospace stocks, oils and electrical equipments to help the market to a minor gain.

Tobaccos were soft and motors mixed. Steels were unchanged to slightly lower.

Amerasia held most of a 3-point spurt. The other oils were uneven.

Chrysler gained nearly a point in a ragged automotive section. Ford and General Motors eased.

Polaroid advanced more than 2. Xerox nudged upward nearly a point, along with IBM. Korvette was steady.

The Dow-Jones industrial average at noon was up .80 to 587.39. Corporate and U.S. government bonds showed little change.

Numerous Ways Available Contribute to United Fund

As the second United Fund campaign in Lincoln moves into full swing, many people are asking, "What shall I give?" This is not a question which has a simple answer. One might answer that you give enough to do the job that the United Fund has set out to do. For the individual, the exact amount will be a personal decision.

Here is what we must do—recall that we usually gave a dollar or fifty cents whenever someone came to the door and thus, decide that five or three dollars will be enough for the United Fund. Those fifty cent and dollar contributions were never quite enough to do the job. Not one of the agencies, of which there are seven this year, was able to raise its full budget until Lincoln's first United Fund last year. The United Fund establishes its goal by taking the DESIRED goals of each agency and then add a good size contingency fund. Comparison of this goal with other cities of similar size shows that the Lincoln goal is very modest.

Many of us will not find it easy to dig down for 10, 15, or 25 dollars at one time. For this reason most United Fund campaigns are established on a pledge basis, much the same as most churches. A sum in pledged and then may be paid in installments quarterly, monthly or even weekly. Recognizing the importance of charitable gifts, and to do their part to make it easy for the individual, some Lincoln employers have offered to handle pledges on a payroll deduction basis. One may elect this method or be billed through the mail. Another guide is the "Fair Share" plan in which each person gives one hour of pay per month, or 1 per cent of earnings of $10,000 a year up. If every wage earner would pledge on this Lincoln's second United Fund drive would be even successful than the first. Do your share—To quote a tag, "Every Good Guy with a total of $151.3 billion appropriated for current and future fiscal years. This was exceeded only by the wartime $147 billion of 1942 and $135 billion of 1943.

Still, this year's total was about $3.8 billion less than Kennedy had asked.

The question of house-senate prestige was very much in evidence in the closing days.

Does the House have the exclusive right to initiate appropriations measures? The House said yes, the Senate said no.

The hassle reached a climax Friday when Rep. Clarence Cannon, (D-Mo.) veteran House Appropriations Committee chairman, demanded a roll call in an attempt to defeat a $205,000 survey item which the Senate had tacked onto the $5-million public works appropriation measure.
Come to Compromise

Cannot lost the vote, but if disclosed what house leaders had tried to avert all week—lack of a quorum due to the exodus home of members anxious to get started on their election campaigns.
Leaders of both houses hammered out a compromise late Friday night.

The House passed the $5-billion public works appropriation measure, but sidetracked a $500-million supplemental appropriation, which included funds for increased pensions for retired federal employees. Cannon had vowed to block the latter measure by a parliamentary maneuver.

Effingham's Water Out of Action

EFFINGHAM, Ill. — The Little Wabash is a good river.
Not a great river.

But always good enough for the 7,000 people of Effingham.

But the water in the Little Wabash might as well have been chicken feathers as far as Effingham folks were concerned Sunday.

The city's water supply was out of action.

Saturday, a main, linking an Effingham reservoir with the water treatment plant, burst.

When that was fixed, the city's water pump wouldn't draw.

The reason? Saturday night bathers, lawn waterings and car washings had consumed the 000 stand tanks. There was pressure.

While pump priming was on, polluted water seeped
the system and city fire,

Logan Nurses On Field Trip

Logan county professional Nurses association met Monday evening for a field trip to St. John's Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Springfield. Approximately 20 registered nurses made the trip.

They were met by Sister M. John Baptist, Sanatorium administrator and taken on an extensive tour of the Sanatorium. St. John's is a 180 bed hospital located 6 miles north west of Springfield for the care and treatment of all types of tuberculosis. The sanatorium is conducted by the Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis.

The medical staff consists of three full-time physicians, who have specialized in the treatment of tuberculosis; a dentist, many consulting doctors of Springfield as well as a complete nursing staff of registered Sister nurses, registered nurses, nurse aides etc. The hospital also employs a full time registered rehabilitation director as well as an occupational therapist. Modern drugs and surgery today have shortened the stay in the Sanatorium many days and sometime months." He stressed the fact that, "If we are to eradicate tuberculosis, an extensive case finding program must be continued."

Water Man New 'Race' in Future

LONDON (AP) — Commandant Jacques-Yves Cousteau, pioneer of aqua lung diving, told the second world congress of undersea activities today a new man of the future to be known as homo aquaticus probably will develop within the next 50 years.

Homo aquaticus, water man, will eventually be born and live under water, he said, and there will be parliaments and probably new nations in the sea.

Cousteau told of a new village he proposes to establish under the sea. One or two dozen people will live in it, he said.

"It will be erected with small nuclear plants for energy to drive the necessary respiratory gases from the sea. It will have absolutely no physical connection with a land base. Settlers will come to make their homes at the bottom of the sea," he said.

"This will cause the development of a new man. The man will be able, after the results of some experiments on highly developed animals, to resist pressures down to 1,000 or 1,500 meters."

Cousteau said the only difficulty with the new underwater man is that his lungs would have to be filled with a compressible liquid.

"But this can be done," he said. "This new man will probably eventually be born at the bottom of the sea. He will have a surgery at his birth in underwater hospitals. Afterward, this man will be able to walk on land and go skiing as well as to live under water."

"We have examples of this type of man. We have good evidence to think that sea mammals are animals that have returned to the sea," he said.

Will Back Demo

MANCHESTER, N. H. (AP) — Republican Gov. Wesley Powell, defeated for nomination last month, has thrown his support to the Democratic candidate but insists "I'm still a Republican."

Powell, 47, who sought an unprecedented third term and talked of a place on the GOP national ticket in 1964, said in a television speech Wednesday night he cannot support the primary winner, John Pillsbury of Manchester, a member of the New Hampshire House.

"I frankly do not believe in John Pillsbury," Powell said. "I cannot subscribe to his obstructionism in the legislature. I cannot tolerate his surrender to William Loeb"—publisher of the Manchester Union Leader.

Sag Hits Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market sagged in slow trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 4 at 217.5 with industrials off 7, rails unchanged, and utilities off 2. Losses of most key stocks ranged from fractions to around a point.

Major steelmakers dropped fractions.

Auto stocks mounted a string of fractional losses.

Lockheed, down a point or more, was about the worst loser among the aerospace issues, the others dropping fractions.

IBM dropped 2 points or so in a routine swing, and Xerox a point. Polaroid and Korvette were about unchanged.

Among the minority of gainers, Public Service Electric & Gas rose more than a point while fractional advances were made by Pfizer, Merck, Eastern Air Lines, Du Pont, Goodyear, and Homestake.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 2.64 at 585.04. Corporate and U.S. government bonds edged higher in slow trading.

The satisfaction came from Pope John XXIII. The 80-year-old pontiff, who has made the worldwide meeting the keystone of his reign, told a general audience Wednesday he was pleased with the way it was going.

The struggle is among the 2,700 council fathers — cardinals, archbishops, bishops and patriarchs — assembled here from all over the world.

It is an undercurrent contest for ascendancy at this greatest religious gathering in modern times. On one side are leaders of the cautious traditionalist view who want to preserve the status quo.

On the other are "progressives" who favor many changes in the nature of the church.

The note of sorrow came when Bishop Joseph B. Burke, 76, of Buffalo, N. Y., died of a heart attack Tuesday.

Pleased With Vatican Meet

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council went into its second week today. The record so far was one of satisfaction, struggle and a note of sorrow.

The satisfaction came from Pope John XXIII. The 80-year-old pontiff, who has made the worldwide meeting the keystone of his reign, told a general audience Wednesday he was pleased with the way it was going.

The struggle is among the 2,700 council fathers — cardinals, archbishops, bishops and patriarchs — assembled here from all over the world.

'War Scare' For Stocks

NEW YORK — The stock market today reacted in typical "war scare" fashion to President Kennedy's arms quarantine of Cuba, with defense-related issues strong and other issues weak. Prices were mixed and trading heavy. The aerospace-rocket-electronics group made big gains. Steels and rails, of crucial importance in a military emergency, advanced solidly. Utilities sank sharply. Losses were taken also by the international oils, vulnerable to take-over in the event of hostilities. The ticker tape ran as much as 18 minutes late. More than a million shares were traded in a turbulent first hour.

Reflecting the cross currents of a confused market, The Associated Press average of 50 stocks at noon was off 2 at 212.2 with Industrials up 4, rails up 1.2, and utilities down 1.5.

The three ways outlined at this time are as follows:
1. gifts or donations (tax deductible); 2. pledges of support over a period of time; 3. bonds bearing 6 per cent interest— payable each year in denominations of $100, $200, and $500.
Anyone wanting additional information may write to the Christian Nursing Home, 1507 Seventh St., Lincoln.

Millville said he attempted to free the man from underneath the tractor but could not do so. He then called for an ambulance and the police.

The deceased's head and chest were pinned underneath the gasoline tank of the tractor. A wrecker had to be called to lift the tractor off the body so it could be removed.

Millville said the man's legs were still a straddle the tractor seat when he arrived.

Logan county Sheriff Joe Scanlon and city police investigated.

The body was removed by Fricke Ambulance to the Holland and Barry Funeral Home.

Coroner John Barry said an inquest would be conducted at a later date.

Friends may call Wednesday afternoon and evening at the funeral home. Services will be at 2 p.m., Thursday from Zion Lutheran church with the Rev. Arthur E. Netzel officiating. Burial will be in Union cemetery.

The deceased was born at Beason Oct. 5, 1922, the son of William C. and Hilda Anderson Johnson. TELL-TALES: Editor's Notebook....

It's a bit 'round about, but the Courier is read regularly in the Canal Zone by Andrew Logan Anderson who is visiting in Lincoln with his mother, Mrs. Edna S. Anderson, 304 Tremont st. Maj. Bernard Twomey, formerly of Atlanta, is stationed at Albrook A.F. Base in the Zone. Regularly, Twomey and his wife receive cookies, cakes, etc. ... from the major's mother in Atlanta. And she sends the Couriers which have accumulated between mailings. After the Twomeys read them, they pass them on to Anderson. The papers have "traveled" about 2,400 miles before reaching the hands of their readers.

Lincoln chapter 351, Order of Eastern Star, has 243 who have been members 10 years or more. The past matron with the longest membership is Miss Julia Pegram (57 years). However, Mrs. Lula McAllister is the member with the most years — 59. — Those among the 243 present for the Oct. 22 chapter meeting received certificates from Mrs. Jacqueline Sheridan, worthy matron. Those absent will later receive the recognitions.

Trading stamps are the highest priced product at auction sales these days. At a recent sale in Lincoln an alarm clock and four or five books of trading stamps brought a grand total of $12. The clock was probably valued at $2.00 or $3.00.

It is sometimes more dangerous watching a football game than playing in one. Bud Allen found out the hard way when he fell in the bleachers at Crawfordsville, Ind. last weekend while watching his son, Barry, of Bradley, playing against Wabash. Bud received a broken shoulder blade.

The young lady was sure she had enough. But it wasn't quite enough as her car ran out of gas as she turned into the Lincoln service station.

In case any Lincoln Lions club members are plane pilots and plan to be in Mexico City Oct. 31-Nov. 4 for the international air rally, they will be taken care of by the Lions of Mexico City. We have their word for it in a letter to the Courier. The south-of-the-border service club is offering a special trophy for the best qualifying Lion-pilot.

It took some time, but it was inevitable ... traffic deaths in the state of Illinois have caught up and surpassed deaths on our highways for a corresponding time a year ago. On July 1, of this year, traffic deaths in the state were 60 behind that of July 1, 1961. The toll is now 21 ahead of the previous year. It took less than four months to catch up.

Talk about getting carried away with a role. Actor E. G. Marshall of the TV show, "The Defenders," in which he PORTAYS an attorney, is stumping the state, speaking on judicial reform. It is commendable that Mr. Marshall is taking the interest and time to speak out on a subject, but it should always be remembered that he is an attorney on television only and but a layman in the field of law.

Officials of both parties in Logan county are predicting a heavy vote in the Nov. 6 election, with estimates up to 15,000.

Some of these days some youngster is gonna get it in the neck unless he exercises more care in sidewalk crossings at Lincoln alleys. Several times, even in driving slowly from the alley to a street, we have come near contact because of youngsters dashing across the alley with no mind to the danger.

It is NO surprise that some disagreed with Notebook of Oct. 20 that Sam Keys and Garry Moore (TV master) are look-alikes. — On the other hand, there were as many who agreed.

Serving a lodge station as a brothers night guest officer, Edgar Salzenstein "acted out" the part. He was organist and as he spoke his ritual, ground away on a toy "Yogi Bear" instrument. — At the same meeting, James A. Burst of Buying On Stock Market

NEW YORK (U) — The stock market today celebrated the apparent agreement on the Cuban crisis with a burst of buying which lifted prices substantially. Trading was active early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up to a sharp gain of 3.7 at 214.9, with industrials up 5.6, rails up 1.3, and utilities up 2.2.

Key stocks were up from fractions to more than 2 points on a broad front, clipping their gains somewhat as the early excitement moderated.

Litton Industries was up 1 1/2, Polaroid 2 1/2, IBM 8 1/2, Zenith 3 1/2, and Burroughs 2.

The advance took in most major sections of the list, but the space age defense stocks made only small gains at the start. As the session wore on most of these gains melted in view of the fact that international tensions seemed to be easing. Boeing, United Aircraft, and General Dynamics were about unchanged. Douglas Aircraft eased.

The top steel producers kept fractional gains and U.S. Steel, was barely ahead.

Auto stocks were unanimously higher. Chrysler kept a gain of about 3 points and Ford (ex dividend) was ahead well over a point.

Utilities snapped back handsomely from recent selling pressure. American Telephone and International Telephone were both up more than 2 and substantial gains were made by a number of others.

Standard oil (New Jersey) held a gain of about a point.

Gains of around 2 points or better were made by Merck, Pfizer, Sears Roebuck, and Zenith.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 10.38 at 579.40.

Victory for U.S. Hailed by West Europe

LONDON (U) — Western Europe hailed the Soviet Union's retreat in the Cuban crisis as a stunning victory for the United States and greeted it universally with profound relief today.

The dramatic turn of events was seen as opening up possibilities for new East-West negotiations on the whole question of disarmament.

President Kennedy emerged in the West as the undisputed hero of the crisis. Soviet Premier Khrushchev also came in for some praise.

"Retreat From Danger"
Banner headlines such as "Back from the brink," "Retreat from danger" and "End of a nightmare" reflected Europe's mood of deep thankfulness at having escaped the horrors of nuclear war.

The British government officially welcomed the Soviet announcement that it is ready to dismantle its Cuban missile sites. A few hours earlier Prime Minister Harold Macmillan had messaged Khrushchev that such a move would open the way to wider negotiations on a nuclear test ban and disarmament generally.

Cuba might lead to "a final settlement in peace."

In the Soviet Union, Pravda published the messages exchanged between Kennedy and Khrushchev on its front page.

In neutral Sweden one headline described the Soviet move as a retreat and unconditional surrender. Said the conservative Svenska Dagbladet: "The capitulation is so complete that it is without comparison in earlier stages of the cold war."

Castro in Position to Stir Rabble

WASHINGTON (U) — Fidel Castro's prestige has suffered a damaging blow but his capacity for trouble-making subversion in Latin America has not been ended, American diplomats said today.

As fresh evidence of this, authoritative sources cited the new signal given Sunday by the official Cuban radio for general terrorist agitation in Latin America.

The signal broadcast by the official Havana radio was heard by both U.S. and Venezuelan government sources. The instructions to Castro agents called for dynamiting Venezuelan oil facilities at Lake Maracaibo. Saboteurs knocked out one-sixth of Venezuela's oil production by blowing up four oil company power stations.
