17 Degrees Here During Weekend; Season's Mark

There's little left of the snow which "surprised" the Logan area early Saturday morning. And in the wake of its passing, it was a cold weekend. Early Sunday morning the temperature dropped to 17 degrees — lowest mark of the season.

Minimum during Sunday night was 25 degrees after a high of 43 during the day. It was 25 degrees at 7:30 a.m. Monday and the sky was heavily clouded.

Weather Observer Gary Juhl reports November precipitation was 2.59 inches — leaving the area a long ways deficient in water. Most of it was in the form of rain — 2.53 inches — the month-end snowfall added .6 of an inch. High temperature reading for the 11th month was 68 degrees — recorded the 9th, 16th and 17th. Lowest was 22 degrees, registered on the 24th.

HAVE COLD AND SNOW

(By ASSOCIATED PRESS)

The season's most severe snowstorm which swept across North Central areas, dumping up to nearly a foot of snow in some sections, tapered off today as it moved slowly eastward.

Blizzard conditions were reported Sunday in some parts of the storm belt, which covered broad areas in the Dakotas, Minnesota and parts of Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and Nebraska.

At least five deaths were attributed to the storm.

Driving Hazardous

Gusty winds swept the Prairie lands, causing much drifting of snow and creating hazardous driving conditions. Snow plows in some parts of the snow belt were unable to keep highways clear and maintenance crews halted work until the snow diminished.

Eight persons were injured near Little Falls, Minn., when a Greyhound bus carrying 21 passengers overturned after colliding with a car on a snowy highway.

Colder weather spread into the snow-covered region and temperatures were near zero in sections of North Dakota. Generally, readings were in the teens in most of the North Central region, with the 20s reported across most Northern sections.

McCarthy - - - -

no one party can elect more than two-thirds of the members, nor shall one party be denied less than one-third of the members. This is consistent with the Constitutional requirement of minority representation in the House. The 29 senators shall also be selected at state party convention. This suspension of the direct primary would be for 1964 only and would avoid the thousands of filings that might otherwise be made.

As to the mechanics of tabulating the ballots in the general election, McCarthy recommends that the 29 senatorial candidates be carried on the regular paper ballot, where the paper ballots are used, for in the senatorial race each vote counts only one. There is no cumulative concept. Where voting machines are used, a separate ballot would be necessary for the 29 senatorial candidates but the local judges could tabulate the results as they would not have to be involved in fractional votes. There must be a special ballot for the representative candidates used throughout the state, of uniform size, quality of paper and printing, where the voter could express his intention to vote from one member to 177, or any fraction thereof. This the voter could do. The problem lies in the tabulation and McCarthy suggests following the Los Angeles, Calif. machine tabulation of paper ballot system wherein all of the representative ballots could be taken to one or more strategic locations, i.e. Springfield, Chicago, where with electronic counting mechanical products all of the ballots could be tabulated and counted by machine with the proper adjustments made for fractional division so that the voters intention could be correctly reflected in the results.

McCarthy further added that if the apportionment commission failed to agree by Saturday at midnight it is probable that Gov. Otto Kerner will call a special session of the Legislature to deal with this problem and that he (McCarthy) hopes the election laws commission will consider his suggestions. McCarthy said that no one wants to have an at-large election, but he is that he is a member of the tica laws commission so plans can be made to d with this contingency sho develop.

A Christmas concert will be performed at the Lincoln Community High School Sunday, Dec. 15, at 4:00 p.m. The concert is a combined effort of the vocal, instrumental, physical education and drama departments.

One phase of the concert will be performed by the A Cappella Choir. They will sing the "Nut Cracker Suite," enriched by a new dimension — the fanciful ballet. Jackie Whittier and Mrs. B. N. Chambers will dual-accompany the group.

Four sections of the original Tchaikovsky's "Nut Cracker Suite" make up the song version with a lively "Overture" as a curtain raiser on the three scenes from Fairland. First is the bright exciting dance "Trepal". Next on stage is the gay and colorful "Dance of the Toy Flutes".

The final scene depicts flowers — magnolias, lilies, daffodils and violets — in the merry, swirling "Waltz of the Flowers." Year after year the "Nut Cracker Suite" holds the favor of audiences the world over — convincing proof of its inherent greatness.

Where voting machines are not used the regular election ballot shall include the 29 nominees for the State Senate. This would extend, again using one half inch, the length of the ballot by only 12 1/4 inches, as you would have one Senate spot allocated anyway, and you would remove two State Representatives places.

Consideration should be given to a proper extension of the time in which a voter can occupy a voting booth, taking into consideration the ultimate, reasonable, practical difficulty encountered.

Picket on Stand for Trial Here

Proceedings in the case of the People vs. Robert Taylor, 53, of Springfield, charged with leaving the scene of an accident after allegedly hitting a picket carrier with his auto at the struck Cutler-Hammer plant here Nov. 19, got underway in the court of Justice of the Peace John Turner Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Lee Horn, Lawndale, one of two pickets allegedly struck by Taylor's car and complainant in the case, was the first witness to take the stand and spent most of the forenoon in the witness chair.

Mrs. Horn related that she was walking the picket line, carrying a sign, when the Taylor auto, after first stopping at the pass gate, struck her on the left side, throwing her partially on the hood of the auto, but not knocking her down. She added that Charles Kodatt, 20, of Lincoln, was also struck by the same auto as he was coming to her aid.

She testified that after the auto struck her, the vehicle rolled backwards and then started forward again, this time hitting Ko-datt.

Mrs. Horn stated she spent a day and two nights in the hospital because of injuries received from the accident. Kodatt was given emergency treatment at the hospital and released, she added.

Taylor, employed by a Springfield catering service and working in the plant's cafeteria because of the strike, continued on to Springfield after the incident and was apprehended there by Sangamon county authorities. He is on $2,000 bond from Judge Turner's court.

VIENNA, Austria (U) — The United States is demanding compensation from Communist Bulgaria for damages done to U. S. property Friday when 3,000 Bulgarians demonstrated outside the American Legation in Sofia.

The demonstrators overturned four American cars and smashed all windows on the legation's first three floors by hurling chunks of ice from the streets.

There was no immediate estimate of the damage. None of the legation's personnel was injured.

The U.S. demand for compensation was made in a strong protest in Sofia to the Communist government of Premier Todor Zhivkov by the ranking legation official, Richard Johnson.

Johnson is in charge of the legation in the absence of Mrs. Eugene Anderson, U.S. minister to Bulgaria, who is on vacation.

Johnson, reached by telephone today, said "all is quiet now." The attack appeared to be in retaliation for the alleged U.S. employment of former Bulgarian diplomat Ivan Asen Christov Georgiev, 56, as a spy.

The mob descended on the building 24 hours after the former second man in a Bulgaria's U.N. delegation pleaded guilty before the supreme court in Sofia of spying for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency for seven years.

He testified he was paid a total of $200,000 from 1956 to 1963 by the CIA and spend most of the money "to meet the needs of my girl friends."

A U.S. Legation spokesman charged Bulgarian authorities took their time in dispatching police to the besieged building.

REPORTS CONFLICTING

This contradicted a report issued by the official Bulgarian Telegraph Agency, which said the demonstrators were quickly dispersed by mounted police.

Public demonstrations in Communist lands are usually government-inspired, a view held of this outbreak by U.S. officials in Washington.

They theorized that the Bulgarian communists may have wanted to show Communist China it is not "soft on the United States."

Rusk Visions Peace Effort In New Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk predicted today that 1964 will be "a period of probing for the possibilities of peace."

But Rusk expressed concern about the "vigorous and hostile promotion of... world revolution" by Communist China and said the world will have to continue dealing with some "very large and dangerous questions."

Berlin, Germany, Cuba and South Viet Nam particularly.

Nevertheless, Rusk in an interview recorded for broadcast in Japan and released by the State Department today, described his outlook as one of "modest optimism."

DISCERNING SOBERNESS

"I do believe that 1964 will be a period of probing for the possibilities of peace," he said. "My impression is that there is a certain soberness in the attitude of the principal governments of the world that there is a recognition that crisis such as the missile crisis in Cuba in October 1962 must be avoided if possible."

The major issue before the world and probably the only possible cause of a major war, Rusk said, is posed by the question: "What kind of a world community shall come out of this period of history?"

"Most of us in the world," he said, "are committed to the kind of world described in the United Nations Charter. There are some who say the world must be transformed by revolution into a Communist world."

WILL NOT BE EASY

"This is the underlying issue, and it is not going to be easy to make that issue disappear..."

Rusk discussed relations with the Soviet Union in hopeful terms, saying he believes that the Soviet people want peace and "the big question is how to move toward points of agreement among governments."

"There will be explorations through diplomatic channels," he continued. "There will be discussions at the Geneva Disarmament conference which opens again in the latter part of January. It will take some time and some patience to bring other matters following up the limited nuclear test ban treaty to agreement. But we should not be discouraged too soon."

President Probes German Attitudes

AUSTIN, Tex. (U) — President Johnson and West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard—two new leaders in the East-West struggle—begin sounding each other out today on how to deal with the Soviet Union.

"There is nothing more important than East-West relations," Johnson said Friday as he declared the issue will be "the most important part" of his two-day weekend conference with Erhard.

"We are going down the road that will lead to peace," Johnson said in a press conference in a barbecue grove of the LBJ Ranch.

"We believe that progress can be made, and we are going to do our best to do our part."

Another important part of the meeting will be the business of Johnson and Erhard taking each other's measures. They met briefly at the funeral of John F. Kennedy.

The President met his guest this morning at Bergstrom Air Force Base near Austin, then they flew by helicopter to the Johnson ranch.

MAY BE ANSWERED

U.S. officials believe the American-German meeting should answer the question of whether the new Bonn leadership is less antagonistic toward a new round of talks with Moscow than former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was.

Since Erhard took over from Adenauer last October, Bonn has made it clear it would not object to continuation of exploratory talks with the Kremlin.

The Germans also let it be known, however, they have

Lady Bird Sees Change at Ranch

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (U) — Lady Bird Johnson says life at the LBJ Ranch is colorful, but it doesn't seem like home since her husband got to the White House.

Things have changed so "I hardly recognize my own home," the First Lady said as she conducted a guided bus tour of the Johnson's 438-acre ranch Friday.

A huge portrait of West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard hung from the balcony of the 100-year old stone and frame house, and West German Republic flags fluttered along the driveway. Erhard arrives today.

PLACE SWARMING

The tree-lined banks of the calm Pedernales River swarmed with 200 reporters and photographers whom President Johnson had invited to a chuckwagon Western barbecue that turned into an informal press conference.

Mrs. Johnson met the arriving busloads of press, hopped aboard, took up a microphone and in professional style launched a tour of the Johnson spread.

Breastily introducing herself—"I'm Lady Bird Johnson, you all"—she pointed to a newly constructed small, white Secret Service sentry box and said:

"This little thing is one of the changes and I hope the neighbors don't mind it."

The First Lady gave a running commentary that ranged from ranch livestock to Johnson family history.

..EYES FOREIGN AID—Undersecretary of State George W. Ball (above) heads a seven-member committee named by President Johnson to study all foreign aid programs and report back by Jan. 15. Johnson wants foreign aid operated more efficiently and with fewer employees.

Rudolph, the red-nosed one, was here. We saw him at the Chester-E. Lincoln grade school Christmas program. The "red" was created with a blown-up balloon "mounted" through the front of a box which served as the "reindeer's" head. Two boys under a "reindeer blanket" served as "power" and one of them had a knack for "rock and roll," shaking his "hindquarters" to the rhythm of the music.

"Trade" in Lincoln stores was "active" the day following Christmas — as those who got gifts of the wrong size showed up for exchanges.

Pressed for what his gift desire might be for Christmas, a Lincoln man said "neckties" and he added, "red ones." The gift giver made it two instead of one — and Boy! they really are red.

"Don't open until Christmas" read the penned note on the back of a Christmas greeting received in Lincoln. And it wasn't opened until that day — since it didn't arrive until Dec. 25 — along with the office mail.
